STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The Gospel Reading for today is what is popularly called the Sermon on the Mount. Many think it is the absolute epitome of Jesus' teachings. To be sure it tells us how we are to live our lives, the attitudes we are to have. We must remember that those who were waiting and hoping for the Messiah expected a military leader, one who would lead them in battle against their oppressors.

In His Sermon on the Mount Jesus gives a more accurate perspective of Who He is. He begins what we call the Beatitudes (the word means "blessings") with "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." In a sense we are all "poor in spirit." Without the guidance and strength provided us by the Lord there is no way we can escape this poverty of spirit, of spirituality, if you will.

That is why we often say that living God-centered lives is at the very core of stewardship. Being a disciple of Christ translates into being a steward of our many gifts and blessings. Some scholars believe that Jesus may have given this sermon often during His ministry. Those who followed Jesus and became the earliest Christians, the first members of the Church, were fond of quoting and referring to what the Lord said on this occasion. As stated Jesus provides us with the secret of living a good life. If we rely on Him and follow Him, we will be blessed.

REFLECIÓN DOMINICAL

El Evangelio de hoy es lo que se llama popularmente el Sermón de la Montaña. Muchos piensan que es la personificación absoluta de las enseñanzas de Jesús. Para estar seguro de que nosotros cómo debemos vivir nuestra vida dice, las actitudes que han de tener.

Debemos recordar que los que estaban esperando

y esperando lo esperado mesías un líder militar, que les llevaría en la batalla contra sus opresores.

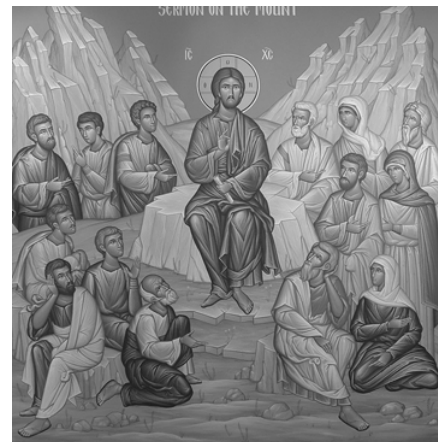

En el Sermón del Monte, Jesús da una perspectiva más precisa de quién es. Comienza lo que llamamos las Bienaventuranzas (la palabra significa "bendiciones") con "Bienaventurados los pobres en espíritu, porque de ellos es el reino de los cielos." En cierto sentido todos somos "pobres de espíritu". Sin la guía y fortaleza nos proporciona el Señor no hay manera de que podamos salir de esta pobreza de espíritu, de la espiritualidad, si se quiere.

Es por eso que a menudo dicen que vivir vidas centradas en Dios está en el corazón mismo de la administración. Ser discípulo de Cristo se traduce en ser un mayordomo de nuestros muchos dones y bendiciones. Algunos eruditos creen que Jesús pudo haber dado este sermón a menudo durante su ministerio. Los que siguieron a Jesús y se convirtieron en los primeros cristianos, los primeros miembros de la Iglesia, eran muy aficionados a citar y haciendo referencia a lo que dijo el Señor en esta ocasión. Como se ha dicho Jesús nos da el secreto de vivir una buena vida. Si confiamos en Él y lo seguimos, seremos bendecidos.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:
