STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Often in this space, we tend to focus on the stewardship messages found in the Gospel reading or perhaps the Second Readings, many of which are letters written by St. Paul. However, on this Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, there is a simple statement in the First Reading from Jeremiah that echoes its strong message to each of us: "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you." (Jeremiah 1:5)

As much as we may wish to ignore it, or perhaps just forget it, God knows us in ways we do not even know ourselves. Jeremiah understood that God had called him to be a prophet; he had no choice, and he fulfilled God's wishes. Scripture speaks to us also nonetheless, as we are reminded in our reading from Jeremiah, the Lord does not just know who we are; He has plans for each of us.

This, of course, is where "free will" comes in. Whether we seek to understand God's plan for us and whether we choose to pursue it is totally up to us. To try to comprehend that vocation, that role, can be a humbling experience. It is not unrealistic for us to have thoughts of ourselves, which may not reach the level of God's plans for us; nevertheless, our task as good stewards is to recognize our gifts and to respond to God's call.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Dios destina a Jeremías a ser profeta de las naciones (Jeremías 1:4-5, 17-19).

Segunda lectura — El amor con todas sus muchas facetas es la más importante de las virtudes (1 Corintios 12:31 — 13:13 [13:4-13]).

Evangelio — Cuando Jesús reclama que su misión salvífica es para todos los pueblos, los miembros de la sinagoga de Nazaret enfurecidos lo echan fuera (Lucas 4:21-30).

REFLECIÓN DOMINICAL

A menudo, en este espacio, que tienden a concentrarse en los mensajes de custodia que se encuentran en la lectura del Evangelio, o tal vez las segundas lecturas, muchas de las cuales son cartas escritas por St. Paul. Sin embargo, en este Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, hay una simple declaración en la primera lectura de Jeremías que se hace eco de su fuerte mensaje a cada uno de nosotros: "Antes que te formase en el vientre te conocí." (Jeremías 1: 5)

Por mucho que podemos desear ignorarlo, o tal vez sólo olvídale, Dios nos conoce en formas que ni siquiera conocemos a nosotros mismos. Jeremías comprendió que Dios lo había llamado a ser un profeta; que no tenía elección, y él cumplió los deseos de Dios. Escritura nos habla también, no obstante, como nos lo recuerda en nuestra lectura de Jeremías, el Señor no sólo sabe lo que somos; Él tiene planes para cada uno de nosotros.

Esto, por supuesto, es donde el "libre albedrío" entra. Si tratamos de entender el plan de Dios para nosotros y si queremos llevar a cabo, es totalmente de nosotros. Para tratar de comprender esa vocación, ese papel, puede ser una experiencia humillante. No es poco realista para nosotros tener pensamientos de nosotros mismos, que pueden no alcanzar el nivel de los planes de Dios para nosotros; sin embargo, nuestra tarea como buenos administradores es reconocer nuestros dones y para responder a la llamada de Dios.

Jeremías 1: 4-5, 17-19; Salmo 71: 1-6, 15-17; 1 Cor 12: 31-13: 13; Lc 4, 21 a 30

We have received an email message from the Blood Bank saying that the need for blood is greater than ever throughout the county and state; we urge your participation.

Bringing it close to home, we have had several parishioners whose lives have been saved by blood transfusions, and over the years we've been doing it, your donations have saved over 9,000 lives.

Suggestion for the Year of Luke

(Cycle C)

Every morning after reading, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me to bring glad tidings to the poor, he has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord” I ask myself this question: “How will I spread the Good News of hope, freedom, healing, forgiveness and justice today?”

At the end of the day I read the same passage and ask the question: “How did I spread the Good News of hope, freedom, healing, forgiveness and justice today? Thank you Lord letting me spread your kingdom, for being a part of your Body.”

WELCOME TO St. James-St. Leo Catholic Community!

We warmly welcome all visitors and hope you will consider making our community your parish home. Church attendance does not make you or your family registered members. Registration forms are in the brochure rack at the entrance of the church, or at the parish office.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is “To Serve Christ and His Church.” For more information visit:
