New Life-Changing Scholarships For Casa Eudes Girls

Maritsa dreams of being a doctor, Soledad wants to be a nutritionist, and Laura longs to be a nurse. They're all from the Casa Eudes Girls Home in Tijuana and none of them have a family to help them. Going to college is an impossible dream.

Our new Futures Program will change all that. We want to pay their tuition and living expenses so they can go to college in Tijuana. To do this, we need compassionate people to step up and contribute to our new scholarship program. Please help these intelligent girls fulfill their dreams. Contact Jeff Sturgis at prez@missioncircle.com or Maggy Hillenbrand at carlmaggy@aol.com.

We can't change their difficult past but we can change their future

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

In the midst of miracles and cures and deep understanding of people, Jesus may sometimes seem distant from us. The readings on this Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time, however, emphasize His humanity; He was one of the people, someone who each of us could relate to not as a God, but a man. However, it can be a bit overwhelming for us to accept Jesus in the way He wants us to.

That does not mean we do not acknowledge His divinity, but we also must view Him as a companion on our own life's journey. In a sense, this is what stewardship calls us to — walking with the Lord and leaning on Him when we must, and certainly finding strength in His presence. But to have Him present in our lives requires us to make an effort to make that happen.

In the first reading from Deuteronomy, Moses declares, "A prophet like me will the Lord, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen." Throughout Advent and the Christmas season we prepared for the arrival of Jesus. Now as we approach Lent and Easter it is time for us to listen to Him. The late Archbishop Fulton Sheen said, "One of the best ways to get happiness and pleasure out of life is to ask ourselves, 'How can I please God?'"

Dt 18: 15-20; Ps 95: 1-2, 6-9; 1 Cor 7: 32-35; Mk 1: 21-28

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Moisés le habló a todo el pueblo diciendo: "El Señor Dios hará surgir en medio de ustedes un profeta como yo" (Deuteronomio 18:15-20).

Salmo — Ojalá escuchen hoy su voz; no endurezcan sus corazones (Salmo 95 [94]).

Segunda lectura — Hermanos y hermanas: Yo quisiera que ustedes vivieran sin preocupaciones (1 Corintios 7:32-35).

Evangelio — Los oyentes quedaron asombrados de sus palabras, pues enseñaba como quien tiene autoridad (Marcos 1:21-28).

Oye su voz.

REFLECIÓN DOMINICAL

En medio de milagros y curaciones y un profundo conocimiento de la gente, Jesús veces puede parecer distante de nosotros. Las lecturas de este cuarto domingo del tiempo ordinario, sin embargo, hacen hincapié en su humanidad; Era una de las personas, alguien que cada uno de nosotros podría relacionarse con no como Dios, sino un hombre. Sin embargo, puede ser un poco abrumador para nosotros aceptar a Jesús en la manera que Él quiere que nosotros.

Eso no significa que no reconocemos su divinidad, sino que también le debe ver como un compañero en el camino de nuestra propia vida. En cierto sentido, esto es lo que nos llama a la mayordomía - caminar con el Señor y apoyándose en Él cuando debemos, y sin duda encontrar la fuerza en su presencia. Pero nosotros tenerlo presente en nuestras vidas requiere hacer un esfuerzo para que esto suceda.

En la primera lectura del Deuteronomio, Moisés declara: "Un profeta como yo se que el Señor, tu Dios, levantará de entre su propia familia; a él oiréis. "A lo largo de Adviento y la temporada de Navidad que nos preparamos para la llegada de Jesús. Ahora que nos acercamos a la Cuaresma y la Pascua es el momento para que nosotros le escuchamos. El difunto Arzobispo Fulton Sheen dijo: "Una de las mejores maneras de conseguir la felicidad y el placer de la vida es que preguntarnos, '¿Cómo puedo agradecer a Dios!'"

Dt 18: 15-20; Salmo 95: 1-2, 6-9; 1 Corintios 7: 32-35; Mc 1, 21-28

Ministry of Consolation

Seasons of Hope: A Support Group for the Bereaved

If you're in need of consolation after losing a loved one, this Christ-centered faith sharing bereavement group is for you. We will meet for six Thursdays beginning February 19. Prayer, scripture, faith sharing and fellowship begin at 10:00 a.m. Cost: $6/person, to cover the cost of Participant Journal. For more details or to register, pick up a brochure in the vestibule of the church and contact Katie Hodsdon, (858) 755-2545, ext. *107 or katie@stjames-stleo.com

Got the Spirit?

A surprising number of Catholic adults have been baptized and receive Eucharist, but never completed their initiation by celebrating the sacrament of confirmation. Are you one of them? Would you like to be confirmed this spring?

If you'd like to better understand the pillars of our faith, come join Deacon Peter and Katie Hodsdon for an 8 session series starting on Monday, Feb 2 in the Ministry Center. We'll cover topics such as revelation, scripture, Christology, the Church, prayer, liturgy, sacraments, and the moral life. Sessions begin at 7 PM – no charge, just show up!

Join us!!

Interested in Promoting Peace and Justice?

Join us for the San Diego Regional Pax
Christi meeting on:

Monday, February 9, 2015

6:30 to 8:00 PM

Parish Center Conference Room

Pax Christi USA, which means Peace in Christ, is a national Catholic peace and justice movement. Its purpose is to create a world that reflects the Peace of Christ by exploring, articulating, and witnessing the call of Christian nonviolence. This work begins in personal life and extends to communities of reflection and action to transform structures of society. Pax Christi USA rejects war, preparations for war, and every form of violence and domination. It advocates primacy of conscience, economic and social justice, and respect for creation.

Please contact Christy at christybohan@cox.net if you have any questions or to RSVP.

Where There's a CASA, There's Hope

At Voices for Children, we believe every child has the right to a safe, permanent home, to feel loved, and to be supported. This year, dive into a unique volunteer opportunity that allows you a real chance to make a difference in a child's life. Unlike any other program, Voices for Children's volunteer Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASAs) work one-on-one with a child or group of siblings in foster care. CASAs learn everything they can about the children's case and get to know each child. They work to ensure these children are set on paths to become successful adults and that their needs are met—in court, at their schools, and in their placements. A child with a CASA is a child who has hope.

No prior experience is necessary. Bring your passion and dedication, and we'll provide all the training and support you need.

Attending a Volunteer Information Session is the first step to becoming a CASA volunteer. Held in Kearny Mesa, upcoming dates include: February 7 from 10:00-11:30 am and February 17 from 6:00-7:30 pm.

Inspire a friend! Please share this message with someone you think may make a good CASA and invite them to attend a Volunteer Information Session, too. To learn more, visit www.speakupnow.org. For questions, please contact volunteer@speakupnow.org and (858) 598-2230.

Fair Trade Coffee and Chocolate

Coffee and Chocolate will be on sale today after Mass. There will be special Valentines Day Chocolate for sale.

Unlike many of the large commercial candy companies, our producer uses cacao beans only from plantations who never use trafficked labor. So be sure to give your sweeties the that treat farmers and producers fairly. For information, please contact Julie Bishop (858)705-2447.

San Diego Blood Bank at St. James

The mobile unit of the San Diego Blood Bank will be at St. James Sunday, February 15, from 7:30 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. to receive blood donations. The need for blood remains great throughout the county and state, and we urge your participation. Bringing it close to home, we have had several parishioners whose lives have been saved by blood transfusions, and over the years we've been doing it, your donations have saved over 9,000 lives.

For your convenience, you may make an appointment either by: visiting the Blood Bank website at MY-SDBB.org or calling the Blood Bank 1-800-4MY-SDBB (1-800-469-7322) or calling Bob or Cory Graves at (858) 755-8990 or emailing Bob at robtgraves@wwdb.org.

Appointments are not required, but are advisable, especially right after Mass lets out.

First World Day Against Human Trafficking Set for February 8th

The first International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking is February 8, the feast of St. Josephine Bakhita, a Sudanese slave who eventually was freed and became a Canossian nun. The day is intended to raise awareness on the “violence and injustice that affect” the numerous victims of trafficking. The observance is also designed to seek solutions and promote concrete action to stop trafficking.

Human Trafficking is a form of modern-day slavery. It is an egregious violation of basic human rights and a crime under U.S. and California laws. Pope Francis spoke out against human trafficking saying, “Trafficking in persons is a despicable activity, a disgrace to our society that calls itself ‘civilized.’”

According to the Department of Justice, human trafficking is the fastest growing criminal enterprise, the second most profitable after drug trafficking with recent reports estimating 32 million persons are being trafficked globally and an estimated annual profit reported at the close of 2014 at $150 billion worldwide.

Victims, predominantly women and children (80%), are forced into unpaid labor, debt bondage, coerced prostitution or sexual servitude. Trafficked victims “have no voice, do not count. and are made to believe they are no one. They are simply slaves.”

How will you use your God-given gifts to help?

Human Trafficking is “over there” THINK AGAIN!

It’s right in our nation and city!

Catholic Relief Services, Catholic Charities and Hope House on Tuesday, February 3rd at 6:30pm in the St. James Parish Hall are presenting an evening of learning on the issue of Human Trafficking. The evening will include an international perspective from CRS, the national perspective from Catholic Charities and the local perspective from Hope House. Please join us for this evening of eye opening presentations, a time for questions & answers and refreshments sponsored by St. James/St. Leo Global Solidarity and Adult Faith Formation ministries, who will accept any goodwill offerings you care to make.

Community Breakfast

On Sunday, February 8th, the Knights of Columbus will host, in the parish hall after the 7:30 and 9:00 am Masses, an all you can eat community breakfast. The breakfast features golden brown buttermilk pancakes and includes juice, fresh fruit, scrambled eggs, fried potatoes, and sausage.

The proceeds will go to Sister Zita’s wish list for St. Leo Mission. Sr. Zita’s current project is a large permanent canopy structure to cover the majority of the parking lot immediately adjacent to St Leo. This canopy will provide a much needed covered area at the Masses and for St. Leo many community events.

WELCOME TO St. James-St. Leo Catholic Community!

We warmly welcome all visitors and hope you will consider making our community your parish home. Church attendance does not make you or your family registered members. Registration forms are in the brochure rack at the entrance of the church, or at the parish office.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is “To Serve Christ and His Church.” For more information visit:
