STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

What we know and understand as Church more or less begins with today's Gospel reading from St. Luke. Jesus calls His first disciples — His first Apostles. Luke tells us of the miracle that occurred for St. Peter and the others in their fishing boat. At the Lord's command, they cast their nets after a time of catching nothing, and "they caught a great number of fish."

Note Peter's reaction, however. He falls to his knees and implores Jesus, "Depart from me Lord, for I am sinful man." St. Peter is astonished and amazed, and he is, quite frankly, afraid of what he has just experienced.

We may sometimes react to the Lord's calling in a similar way. It is a bit overwhelming and frightening to come to the realization that we, too, are called, and that the Lord has expectations of us.

Yet, this is how what we know as the Church began. It commenced with Jesus calling simple fishermen according to our Gospel. These, of course, then developed into twelve, then hundreds, then thousands, and now millions upon millions of those called to be disciples. We are among that throng. When Luke speaks of "following," he is talking about discipleship. We are called to be stewards and disciples, but are we willing to "leave everything and follow Him?"

Is 6: 1-2A, 3-8; Ps 138: 1-5, 7-8; 1 Cor 15: 1-11; Lk 5: 1-11

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — En una visión, el Señor de los ejércitos llama a Isaías a ser su representante. Isaías responde, "¡Envíame!" (Isaías 6:1-2a, 3-8)

Salmo — Cuando te invocamos, Señor, nos escuchaste (Salmo 138 [137]).

Segunda lectura — Pablo nos recuerda el Evangelio que nos predicó por medio del cual somos salvados, si creemos (1 Corintios 15:1-11).

Evangelio — Jesús le indica a Simón que lleve la barca a la parte más honda para una pesca milagrosa. Simón y sus compañeros lo dejaron todo para seguir a Jesús (Lucas 5:1-11).

REFLECIÓN DOMINICAL

Lo que sabemos y entendemos como Iglesia más o menos comienza con el Evangelio de hoy la lectura de San Lucas. Jesús llama a sus primeros discípulos - Sus primeros apóstoles. Lucas nos narra el milagro que se produjo por San Pedro y los otros en su barco de pesca. En el mandato del Señor, echaron sus redes después de un tiempo de coger nada, y "encerraron gran cantidad de peces."

Nota reacción de Pedro, sin embargo. Cae de rodillas y suplica a Jesús: "Apartaos de mí Señor, porque soy hombre pecador." San Pedro está asombrado y sorprendido, y él es, francamente, miedo de lo que acaba de experimentar. A veces podemos reaccionar a la llamada del Señor de una manera similar. Es un poco abrumador y aterrador para llegar a la conclusión de que también nosotros estamos llamados, y que el Señor tiene expectativas de nosotros.

Sin embargo, así es como lo que conocemos como comenzó la Iglesia. Comenzó con Jesús llamando simples pescadores de acuerdo a nuestro Evangelio. Estos, por supuesto, a continuación, se convirtieron en doce, luego cientos, luego miles, y ahora millones y millones de los llamados a ser discípulos. Estamos entre esa multitud. Cuando Lucas habla de "siguiente", él está hablando de discipulado. Estamos llamados a ser administradores y discípulos, pero estamos dispuestos a "dejarlo todo y seguirlo?" Is 6, 1-2A, 3-8; Salmo 138: 1-5, 7-8; 1 Corintios 15: 1-11; Lc 5: 1-11

The mobile unit of the San Diego Blood Bank will be at St. James Sunday, February 14, from 7:30 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. to receive blood donations. We have received an email message from the Blood Bank saying that the need for blood is greater than ever throughout the county and state; we urge your participation.

Bringing it close to home, we have had several parishioners whose lives have been saved by blood transfusions, and over the years we've been doing it, your donations have saved over 9,000 lives.

Remember: people are the only source -- there is no substitute. And only 3% of Americans ever donate blood. If you've never given blood before, now is the time to start. Let's give them a big turnout!

WELCOME TO St. James-St. Leo Catholic Community!

We warmly welcome all visitors and hope you will consider making our community your parish home. Church attendance does not make you or your family registered members. Registration forms are in the brochure rack at the entrance of the church, or at the parish office.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:
