STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

God proclaims at the end of our Second Reading from the Book of Revelations, “Behold, I make all things new.” That is a good thing to remember on this Fifth Sunday of Easter. In the opening verse of this reading from Holy Scripture, John also says, “I... saw a new heaven and a new earth.” Easter reveals this newness to us, and we must always keep it in mind.

The Greek word used for what is translated as “new” is kaine. As is normally the case, that particular Greek word has multiple meanings, one of which is “fresh.” We are not speaking of a heaven and earth which did not exist before, but of a heaven and earth which are fresh in their newness. This is not just a “new” perspective, but a better one.

If we strive to live out our lives as disciples of Christ, if we make a complete effort to be His disciples, we inherit this new heaven. In it, as also indicated in our Second Reading, God expresses His desire to be in close fellowship with us, and we in turn must desire to be His people. Being God's disciple should be the whole purpose of our lives. That is not easily achieved, nor is it without obstacles and hurdles for us, but it is what our purpose should be.

Acts 14: 21-27; Ps 145: 8-13; Rev 21: 1-5A; Jn 13: 31-33A, 34-35

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera Lectura — Pablo y Bernabé continúan sus viajes para fortalecer el espíritu de los discípulos (Hch 14:21-27).

Salmo — Bendeciré al Señor eternamente. Aleluya (Salmo 145 [144]).

Segunda lectura — Juan tiene una visión de Dios morando con la raza humana (Apocalipsis 21:1-5a).

Evangelio — Al igual que Jesús nos ama, así también nosotros debemos amarnos mutuamente (Juan 13:31-33a, 34-35).

REFLECIÓN DOMINICAL

Dios proclama al final de la Segunda Lectura del Libro de las Revelaciones, "He aquí que hago nuevas todas las cosas." Eso es una buena cosa para recordar en este Quinto Domingo de Pascua. En el primer verso de esta lectura de la Sagrada Escritura, Juan también dice: "... Vi un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva." Pascua revela esta novedad para nosotros, y siempre hay que tenerlo en cuenta.

La palabra griega que se usa para lo que se traduce como "nuevo" es kaine. Como suele ser el caso, que la palabra griega en particular tiene varios significados, uno de los cuales es "fresco." No estamos hablando de un cielo y la tierra, que no existía antes, pero de un cielo y la tierra, que están frescos en su novedad. Esto no es sólo una perspectiva "nueva", pero una mejor.

Si nos esforzamos por vivir nuestras vidas como discípulos de Cristo, si hacemos un esfuerzo completo para ser sus discípulos, heredamos este nuevo cielo. En él, como también se indica en la Segunda Lectura, Dios expresa su deseo de estar en estrecha comunión con nosotros, y que a su vez debe desear ser su pueblo. Ser discípulo de Dios debe ser el propósito de nuestras vidas. Eso no es fácil de lograr, ni es, sin obstáculos y dificultades para nosotros, pero es lo que debe ser nuestro objetivo.

Hechos 14: 21-27; Sal 145: 8-13; Rev 21: 1-5A; Jn 13: 31-33A, 34-35

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:
