STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

At the close of today's Gospel reading from Luke are a telling statement. After describing Jesus' journey with His Apostles and others, including some women, one of whom was Mary Magdalene, the women are portrayed as "many... who provided for them out of their resources."

This is an indication that Jesus and His Apostles were reliant upon others for support and sustenance. This is Jesus, Who could have easily provided for Himself in many ways because of His Divinity. However, He chose to need others to survive and to accomplish what He needed to accomplish. Sometimes we may feel independent, and we may even suffer from the desire to not be dependent upon anyone. Nevertheless, we are.

We need other people; we need their prayers; we need their love. The Lord understood this, and He tries to make it clear to us that we are no different. First of all, we are dependent upon the Lord. We need His love, His support, and His strength. We also need others. That is in part what stewardship is all about. We share our gifts, and when they are combined with the gifts of others, our community, our church, our parish is so much more effective. We need one another; however, we must also remember that they need us as well.

2 Sm 12: 7-10, 13; Ps 32: 1-2, 5, 7, 11; Gal 2: 16, 19-21; Lk 7: 36-8:3

REFLECIÓN DOMINICAL

Al término de la lectura del Evangelio de hoy de Lucas son una declaración reveladora. Después de describir el viaje de Jesús con sus apóstoles y otros, incluyendo algunas mujeres, una de las cuales estaban María Magdalena, las mujeres se presentan como "muchos ... que le servían de sus recursos." Esta es una indicación de que Jesús y sus apóstoles eran dependientes de otros para el apoyo y sustento.

Este es Jesús, que podría haber proporcionado fácilmente por sí mismo en muchas formas debido a su Divinidad. Sin embargo, escogió a necesitar otros para sobrevivir y para llevar a cabo lo que tenía que llevar a cabo. A veces podemos sentir independiente, y puede que incluso sufrir desde el deseo de no depender de nadie. Sin embargo, somos.

Necesitamos otras personas; necesitamos sus oraciones; necesitamos su amor. El Señor entiende esto, y trata de dejar claro a nosotros que no somos diferentes. En primer lugar, que dependen del Señor. Necesitamos su amor, su apoyo y su fuerza. También necesitamos a los demás. Esto es en parte lo que la administración se trata. Compartimos nuestros dones, y cuando se combinan con los dones de los demás, nuestra comunidad, nuestra iglesia, nuestra parroquia es mucho más eficaz. Nos necesitamos unos a otros; Sin embargo, también hay que recordar que ellos nos necesitan también.

2 Sm 12: 7-10, 13; Salmo 32: 1-2, 5, 7, 11; Ga 2, 16, 19-21; Lc 7: 36-8: 3

Mission Appeal

We are pleased to welcome Fr. Jerry Aman, S.J. to share his story in the missions during all the Masses today. Please be prepared to listen and support as the message of mission, evangelization, loving service and hope is shared. The proceeds from this Mission appeal are used to directly support the missionary, the organization and the people they serve. Your generous donation unites you as a missionary to our brothers and sisters around the world who need our help.

Mission Circle

Mission Circle needs a treasurer!

We are looking for a parishioner to serve as treasurer. Mission Circle has been very fortunate to have Ed Rood and his financial talents serve as treasurer for the last five years, and his skills and guidance will be sorely missed. We are looking for someone who is familiar with accounting and routine banking/checking. Please contact Jeff Sturgis at pres@missioncircle.com if you are interested in learning more about the position and being a volunteer. Thank you!

HOPE AND FORGIVENESS

There were some interesting conceptions of sin prevalent in the time of the Hebrew scriptures. There was the belief that God punished sin immediately. Those who suffered disease or misfortune were, therefore, sinners getting their due from the Almighty.

Today's first reading hints at another kind of God. When David admits his sin, Nathan declares, "The LORD on his part has forgiven your sin" (2 Samuel 12:13b). Here was not a vengeful God but a merciful God. What good news that must have been to David and those who, like him, could be honest enough to admit their sinfulness!

Jesus is the good news of God's mercy and forgiveness incarnate. Without Jesus, perhaps the good news would have been too good to believe, too difficult to imagine. But there he is in today's Gospel, the God-man, forgiving a sinner and declaring that she is forgiven because of her great love.

There is hope, then, for the rest of us sinners, if only we love enough!

Filled with the Holy Spirit – the Song of Zechariah Evening of Reflection

with Deacon Peter Hodsdon

Wednesday, June 29, 7 pm in the Parish Hall

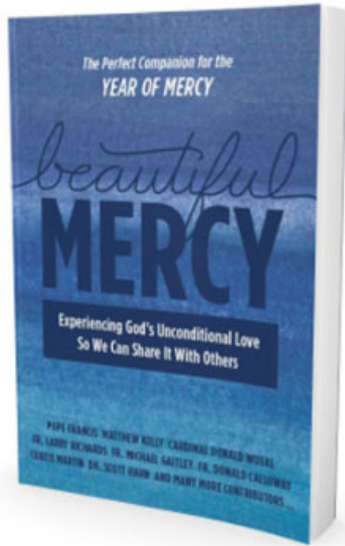

Early in Luke's Gospel, Zechariah, the father of John the Baptist, is moved to declare the glory and plan of God. Expressed as a canticle, Zechariah preaches, "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel..." and continues for 11 verses. (Luke 1:68-79) This deeply moving, hope-filled passage will be the topic of Deacon Peter's evening of reflection on June 29, 2016 at 7 PM in the St. James Parish Hall. He will also have available for purchase his new book, The Dawn From On High, the title of which comes from this canticle. Refreshments and a cash bar will be provided. All proceeds, including a portion of each book's purchase price, will be donated to St. James Adult Faith Formation. Come join us for an evening of spirit, grace, and smiles.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:
