STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

The late Msgr. Thomas McGread, who was pastor of St. Francis of Assisi Parish in Wichita, Kansas for more than 30 years, and is called by some the “Father of Stewardship,” said as he looked back on his experiences supporting and forming stewardship in his people, “The real success of stewardship in our parish is found in the hearts of the people. Without a conversion of heart, no one is able to give of themselves as Christ has asked us to do.”

In today's Second Reading from St. Paul's letter to the Galatians, Paul speaks of his conversion, a change of heart that provided him with the inspiration and the strength to become the apostle and evangelist he was. We are called to conversion by stewardship but it does not have to be as dramatic as Paul's experience.

Nevertheless, conversion influences us to be good stewards, and living stewardship translates into a lifestyle of service. Msgr. McGread recognized that serving rather than being served could be challenging for people. He said, “Stewardship is a spiritual way of life and that is never easy, but anyone I have ever known who became committed to being a steward never went back. Once they adopted that way of living, they were in it for the duration, for life.”

We must understand that to be a disciple of Christ, to actually be one of His followers, requires not just conversion, but action, doing something to serve others. There are many opportunities for service right here in our parish and in our communities.

1 Kgs 17: 17-24; Ps 30: 5-6, 11-13; Gal 1: 11-14A, 15-17, 19; Lk 7: 11-17

REFLECIÓN DOMINICAL

El fallecido Mons. Thomas McGread, que fue párroco de San Francisco de Asís Parish en Wichita, Kansas durante más de 30 años, y es llamado por algunos el "Padre de Custodia", dijo mientras miraba hacia atrás en sus experiencias de apoyo y la formación de la administración en su pueblo "El verdadero éxito de la administración en nuestra parroquia se encuentra en el corazón de las personas. Sin una conversión del corazón, nadie es capaz de dar de sí mismos como Cristo nos ha pedido que hagamos".

En la segunda lectura de hoy de la carta de St. Paul a los Gálatas, Pablo habla de su conversión, un cambio de corazón que le proporcionó la inspiración y la fuerza para convertirse en el apóstol y evangelista que era. Estamos llamados a la conversión por la administración, pero no tiene que ser tan dramático como la experiencia de Pablo.

Sin embargo, la conversión nos influye a ser buenos administradores, y la administración se traduce en vivir un estilo de vida de servicio. Mons. McGread reconoció que sirve en lugar de ser servido podría ser un reto para las personas. El dijo: "La mayordomía es un estilo de vida espiritual y que nunca es fácil, pero cualquier persona que he conocido que se llevó a ser un mayordomo nunca volvió. Una vez que adoptaron esa manera de vivir, que estaban en ella durante el tiempo, para la vida".

Debemos entender que para ser un discípulo de Cristo, siendo en realidad uno de sus seguidores, requiere no sólo la conversión, pero la acción, hacer algo para servir a los demás. Hay muchas oportunidades de servicio aquí en nuestra parroquia y en nuestras comunidades.

1 Reyes 17: 17-24; Sal 30: 5-6, 11-13; Gal 1: 11-14A, 15-17, 19; Lc 7: 11-17

LA PRESENCIA DE DIOS

Date cuenta que por encima de todo estás en la presencia de Dios... vacíate por completo y siéntate a esperar, contento con la gracia de Dios, como un polluelo que no prueba ni come nada sino de lo que su madre le da.

—San Romualdo

Mission Circle

Fashion Show clothes needed.

Mission Circle needs gently used clothes for the Casa Eudes Fashion Show in June. Here's your chance to clean out your closets and help the girls' home in Tijuana at the same time. Just donate your used clothes, shoes, purses, jewelry, and other accessories. After the show the clothes will go to the thrift shop that helps support the home. We're collecting everything from little girls' clothes to teen-age and adult styles. Please put your donations in the collection box in the back of the church and label them "Fashion Show". Thanks so much!

Mission Circle needs a treasurer!

We are looking for a parishioner to serve as treasurer. Mission Circle has been very fortunate to have Ed Rood and his financial talents serve as treasurer for the last five years, and his skills and guidance will be sorely missed. We are looking for someone who is familiar with accounting and routine banking/checking. Please contact Jeff Sturgis at pres@missioncircle.com if you are interested in learning more about the position and being a volunteer. Thank you!

GOD'S PRESENCE

Realize above all that you are in God's presence . . . empty yourself completely and sit waiting, content with the grace of God, like a chick who tastes nothing and eats nothing but what its mother gives it.

—St. Romuald

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Saint Paul begins today's second reading by stating that he was "called" to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As baptized Catholics who have an opportunity to share in Christ's life through the Eucharist regularly, we too are called to proclaim the teachings of Christ. We are stewards of Christ's Gospel. But how are we responding to that call? Do we listen for the guidance of the Holy Spirit? Do we evade, dodge or ignore the Lord's call? Do we attempt to proclaim the Gospel in a spirit of compassion and love? Reflect on how you exercise stewardship over the Gospel.

Hospitality at Mass: A Key to Good Stewardship

For many individuals and families alike, summer means travel. And summer travel may mean new visitors to our parish for weekend liturgies. How we greet and provide hospitality for our guests says a lot about our practice of good stewardship.

Providing hospitality to strangers is a hallmark of Christian stewardship. In the Gospel of Matthew good stewards were commended for their hospitality: "I was a stranger and you welcomed me" (Matt. 25:35). Saint Benedict directed his followers to receive guests and travelers as if they were Christ. Extending hospitality is especially important when it comes to welcoming visitors who may be attending Mass at our parish for the first time.

Providing hospitality to strangers is a hallmark of Christian stewardship.

There is a lot of anecdotal evidence suggesting that the ability of a first-time visitor to have a meaningful experience of Christ in the liturgy is directly impacted by the warmth of the welcome extended by the local worshipping community. When people say hello, the worship experience is enhanced. A warm welcome is part of evangelization, work necessary in a church's mission to help people discover or renew their faith in Christ.

How do we treat the unknown person who walks by us in church, or who sits next to us at Mass? Do we ignore them? Talk around them? Look at them and say nothing? Do we take the initiative to greet them, smile, extend a warm handshake?

Remember, we are Christ's ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20). Our actions and reactions toward visitors at Mass communicate who we are and who we represent. Let us take time to welcome visitors to our parish this summer. Welcoming gestures, however small, will not only have a positive impact on visitors, they will make us more hospitable ambassadors of Christ.

Car Needed

We have a Eudist Seminarian who needs a car. We need a used car in good condition and preferably small. The Lord said: "Ask and you shall receive," so I'm asking. Please contact me at the office, (858) 755-2545. Thank you. Fr. Howard, CJM

How would you like to save a life? The mobile unit of the San Diego Blood Bank will be at St. James today, Sunday, June 5, from 7:30 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. to receive blood donations. Remember: people are the only source -- there is no substitute. And only 3% of Americans ever donate blood.

If you've never given blood before, now is the time to start. Let's give them a big turnout!

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. The Eudists currently operate in 15 countries, most of which are in the developing world. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit:
