Fr. Gerard's Corner

Blessings and curses. The first half of this pair is always wonderful; the second half is worrisome. Many times it is obvious why God curses someone or something: the serpent encourages Eve to disobey, the fig tree will not bear fruit, the wicked lead others astray. But why curse those who trust in other people, those who have plenty, or those who laugh? It is important to see the context. In Jeremiah, God is not cursing a husband who trusts in his spouse or a child who trusts in her parent. Those who are cursed are those who turn away from the Lord and put their trust in fallible creatures. Jesus notices that some have more than enough while others suffer from want. Some turn a blind eye to others' misery. These people will have difficult futures.

Jesus turns the world upside down. Those enjoying riches, happiness, and fame will have their success crumble. Those suffering from hunger, poverty, and derision will be rewarded in the end. This is the paradoxical nature of the kingdom of God. After all, this is the kingdom that Saint Paul refers to in the second reading, the kingdom to which Jesus ascended in the greatest reversal of all: by dying as a criminal on the cross, he was raised to eternal glory.

Jeremiah, Paul, and Jesus all call us to transform our lives. We can do this by changing our perspective. To use Paul's words, we are called not for this life only, but for eternal life with God.

Question of the Week:

How can I change the way I live my life in accordance with the Beatitudes? What can I do to receive the blessings of God and to help others receive those blessings as well?

To report suspected sexual misconduct or child abuse within our institutions and ministries please contact the Child and Youth Protection Office, Victims Assistance Coordinator, Rodrigo Valdivia at (858) 490-8310.

Stewardship in the New Year

Stewardship is a commitment of mind and heart to the Lord; a way of life that needs constant renewal and transformation. This time of year has always been one of looking forward to a new year, reflecting on the changes we need to make in our lives and resolving to follow through on those changes.

Stewardship of Work: Resolve to be faithful to your daily, work-related tasks and offer them up to the Lord. Cultivate your skills. Deepen your knowledge. Be mindful of how you are building the Kingdom of God.

Stewardship of Mind: Resolve to keep your mind active. Commit to being more informed on the issues of the day. Read your Bible. In this presidential election year in the United States, become even more familiar with Catholic social teaching.

People Helping People In Need

Travel size toiletries needed!

Thank you so much for all of the Peanut butter and jelly donations! Your generosity has been so heartwarming and we have an ample supply to keep our mission work going. The prisoners and homeless in Tijuana are feeling the love from our community with a delicious sandwich every week but they are also in need of travel size toiletries. Please help by dropping off any travel size - shampoos, conditioners, bath wash, soaps, lotions and toothpaste/toothbrushes. There is a bin under the counter in the family room. We appreciate your donations!

Looking for a volunteer opportunity?

We need you! The Peanut butter and jelly crew need help picking up bread donations from local grocery stores. Very light commitment, just one morning pick up once a week. Please contact Anna Tran - 858-354-9464, for more details.

Join the Get on the Bus Team

Get on the Bus, a program of the Center for Restorative Justice Works and founded by Sister Suzanne Jabro, provides transportation for children to visit their parents in prison. This spring, we are partnering with St. Patrick's Parish in Carlsbad to provide the comfort backpacks for the children and caregivers for their May 3-5 trip. Watch the bulletin for a list of new items we will be collecting for the backpacks.

If you would like to be part of the team that collects, sorts, and assembles the backpacks, please contact Shirley Giese at shirleygiese@gmail.com.

Responding to GOD'S Grace

Respondiendo a la Gracia de DIOS

Dear friends,

February 2019

Each year we are invited to participate in the Annual Catholic Appeal, which is an opportunity for all of us to support essential ministries and services which benefit many in our Local Church. The theme of this year's appeal, Responding to God's Grace, calls to mind what we experience in giving as well as what others experience in receiving.

The enclosed brochure describes the many programs and ministries that are supported by your contribution to the Annual Catholic Appeal and how the funds are designated. Many of these programs result in important direct benefits to our parish faith community and others provide needed assistance to people around us.

This year our parish share is $90,000. I am confident that we can reach this target and possibly exceed it. Any amount that is received over our target will be returned to our parish to be used as we designate.

Therefore, I invite you to prayerfully consider your response as a faithful steward of the gifts which God has joyfully bestowed on you. You may use the enclosed Response Card to make your pledge and return it in the weekend collection or to the parish office. You may also go to giving.sdcatholic.org for more information or to make a secure online pledge or donation.

Your participation, regardless of the amount, makes a difference. Your generosity brings you joy and brings joy to those who benefit from your gift. Be assured of my gratitude for your support and of my continuing prayers for you and your loved ones.

In Jesus and Mary,

Rev. Gerard Lecomte, CJM

• CATHOLIC COMMUNITY •

Queridos Amigos,

Febrero 2019

Cada año estamos invitados a participar en la colecta anual católica, es una oportunidad para todos nosotros de apoyar ministerios esenciales y servicios que benefician a muchos en nuestra Iglesia Local. El tema de la campaña de este año es "Respondiendo a la Gracia de Dios" esto nos trae a la mente aquello que experimentamos en dar, también lo experimentan los que reciben.

El folleto describe los diferentes programas y ministerios que son apoyados gracias a su contribución en la colecta anual católica y como son distribuidos estos fondos. Muchos de estos programas benefician directamente a nuestra comunidad de fe de nuestra parroquia y otros proveen asistencia necesaria a las personas que nos rodean.

Este año nuestra participación parroquial es de $90,000. Estoy seguro de que podemos alcanzar este objetivo y posiblemente superarlo. Cualquier cantidad que sobrepase nuestro objetivo, será regresada a nuestra parroquia para ser usada como nosotros lo designemos.

Por lo tanto, le invito a participar como un fiel mayordomo de los dones que Dios gozosamente le ha regalado. Puede utilizar la tarjeta de respuesta incluida para hacer su promesa y devolverla en la canasta de ofrenda del fin de semana o a la oficina parroquial. También puede visitar giving.sdcatholic.org para más información o para hacer su promesa o donación en línea de manera segura.

Su participación; independientemente de la cantidad, hace la diferencia. Su generosidad le traerá alegría y dará alegría a aquellos que se benefician de su regalo. Este seguro de mi agradecimiento por su apoyo y de mis oraciones constantes por usted y sus seres queridos.

En Jesús y María,

Reverendo Gerard Lecomte, CJM

Bendiciones y maldiciones. Lo primero es siempre maravilloso; lo segundo es preocupante. Muchas veces es obvio por qué Dios maldice algo o a alguien: la serpiente anima a Eva para que desobedezca, la higuera no da fruto, los malvados llevan a otras personas por caminos equivocados. Pero, ¿por qué maldecir a los que confían en su prójimo, a los que tienen en abundancia o a los que ríen? Es importante ver el contexto. En el pasaje de Jeremías, Dios no maldice al esposo que confía en su esposa o a la hija que confía en su padre o su madre. Los maldecidos son aquellos que se alejan de Dios y ponen su confianza en las criaturas falibles. Jesús nota que algunos tienen más que suficiente mientras que otros carecen de lo necesario. Algunos le dan su espalda a la miseria de otros. Estas personas tendrán un futuro difícil.

Jesús voltea el mundo de cabeza. Aquellos que gozan de riquezas, felicidad y fama verán su éxito desmoronarse. Aquellos que sufren por hambre, pobreza y escarnio serán al final recompensados. Ésta es la naturaleza paradójica del Reino de Dios. Después de todo, éste es el reino al cual se refiere san Pablo en la segunda lectura, el reino al cual ascendió Jesús en la paradoja más grande de la historia: por morir como un criminal en la cruz, Jesús resucita a la gloria eterna.

Jeremías, Pablo y Jesús nos hacen un llamado a transformar nuestra vida. La manera de lograr eso es cambiar nuestra perspectiva. Haciéndonos eco de san Pablo, no hemos sido creados sólo para esta vida, sino para la vida eterna con Dios.

P. Gerard

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
