Fr. Gerard's Corner

"Rejoice," today's entrance antiphon begins, inspiring the reference to this Sunday as Laetare (Rejoice) Sunday. We rejoice not merely because we are more than halfway through Lent; we rejoice because we know God is always eager to reconcile with us. Today's readings celebrate this. The Israelites have finally made it to the Promised Land. Saint Paul points out that God has reconciled with us, so we should be reconciled with God. The father of the prodigal son reconciles with his son immediately, no questions asked. What matters is not how far we have turned away, but that God is always there to welcome us back. Celebrate and rejoice. We have the chance to come to life again.

We are a new creation, Saint Paul asserts: "The old things have passed away . . . new things have come" (2 Corinthians 5:17). Because God has reconciled humanity through Christ, sin has not just been erased in us, we are made new. We are no longer who we once were.

Paradoxically, family bonds can be both fragile and strong. In the Gospel, the younger son is willing to break the bond with his family without much thought, eager to indulge in his own desires. But when he's at his lowest, finally ready to admit his foolishness and sinfulness, he returns to his father, even though he feels unworthy of being treated as his son. Though he wouldn't recognize it as such, that bond he has with his father is strong enough to draw him back home. May this give hope to those whose families have suffered separations.

Who do I need to reconcile with? What can I do over the next three weeks to reconcile with them?

Lenten Collection

Each year all parishes in the Diocese of San Diego are asked to participate in the Annual Lenten Collection. This collection raises funds for Catholic Relief Services, the Church in Africa and the Church in Latin America. This weekend we have placed the envelopes for this collection in the pews.

On the envelope, you may designate your contribution to one or more of the three causes included in this collection. Special collections provide an opportunity for us as individuals and as a parish faith community to reach out in solidarity and assist those in need elsewhere in the world. Monies raised by this collection go to help the Church in areas beyond our national borders.

In this light, we encourage you to join others in our parish and throughout the diocese in responding generously to this collection.

A Brief Examination of Conscience Based on the Ten Commandments

I am the Lord your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me.

Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God?

You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.

Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people?

Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day.

Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday Vigil) and on Holy Days of Obligation. Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day, and proper relaxation of mind and body? Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday?

Honor your father and your mother.

Do I show my parents due respect? Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible? Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

You shall not kill.

Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind?

You shall not commit adultery.

Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself?

You shall not steal.

Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another?

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another?

You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse.

Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Today, "Laetare Sunday," breaks the somberness of Lent for a little rejoicing, and the readings all summon us to an awareness of reconciliation. One of the best-loved stories of our tradition is today's Gospel story of the runaway son and the prodigal father. Prodigal, of course, is an adjective meaning "spendthrift or extravagant to a degree bordering on recklessness," and although the boy maxes out the credit cards, it is really the father who is prodigal with forgiveness.

Part of the excitement of this Laetare Sunday is rooted in the ancient catechumenate. Long ago, midway through Lent, the "elect" were focusing more and more on the gift of reconciliation accomplished for them by Christ and about to be realized in the Easter sacraments they were preparing to celebrate. In some places, the elect were even bedecked with roses on this day. A person bedecked with roses sticks out in a crowd; a person formed by the Eucharist and committed to living a life of reconciliation does, too. That's you!

El rincón del P. Gerardo

“Alégrate”, es como comienza la antífona de entrada de hoy inspirándose en el tema de este domingo de Laetare (alegría). Nos alegramos no solamente porque estamos a mitad de camino de la Cuaresma, sino también porque sabemos que Dios está siempre dispuesto a reconciliarse con nosotros. Las lecturas de hoy celebran eso. Los israelitas han llegado por fin a la tierra prometida. San Pablo nos señala que Dios se ha reconciliado con nosotros y por tanto nosotros debemos reconciliarnos con Dios. El padre del hijo pródigo se reconcilia inmediatamente con su hijo, sin ningún preámbulo. Lo importante no es cuánto nos hemos alejado; lo importante es que Dios está siempre dispuesto a recibirnos de nuevo. Celebremos y alegrémonos, pues tenemos la oportunidad de volver a la vida.

Pablo reafirma que ahora somos una nueva creación: “Todo lo viejo ha pasado. Ya todo es nuevo” (2 corintios 5, 17). Puesto que Dios ha reconciliado a la humanidad por medio de Cristo, el pecado no sólo ha sido borrado, sino que somos una creatura nueva. Ya no somos lo que una vez fuimos.

Paradójicamente, los vínculos familiares son frágiles y fuertes a la vez. En el Evangelio el hijo menor está dispuesto a romper el vínculo familiar sin pensarlo mucho y ansioso de satisfacer sus propios deseos. Pero fue cuando se sintió lo más abatido posible que pudo admitir su necesidad y su pecado, y regresó a su padre aun sintiéndose indigno de ser tratado como hijo. Ese fuerte vínculo con su padre fue lo que lo hizo regresar al hogar, aun cuando no podía reconocerlo así. Que esto le dé esperanzas a aquellas personas cuyas familias han sufrido separaciones.

Cuarta semana de Cuaresma Un encuentro con Kumba

Nos encontramos con Kumba de Sierra Leona, quien, a través de su educación, está brindando esperanza para su familia y su comunidad. La materia favorita de Kumba son las matemáticas porque le gusta el desafío. Y cuando complete su educación, quiere ser enfermera. Una enfermera, dice Kumba, ayuda a curar a los enfermos, y si hubiera más enfermeras en Sinkunia, las que se enfermen no tendrían que irse de la ciudad para recibir atención médica. ¿Cómo te ha dado la educación oportunidades en la vida? ¿Cómo usas tu educación para el bien común? St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
