WORLD DAY of PRAYER for VOCATIONS

World Day of Prayer will be observed on Sunday, May 12, 2019, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes. You can find many resources to promote a culture of vocations on the USCCB Vocations webpage (www.usccb.org/vocations).

Fr. Gerard's Corner

Jesus had always been one to widen his audience. He was determined to break through the false boundaries that were common to the culture and the faith. Gentiles and Jews, women and men, blue collar (fisherman) and white collar (tax collector), the sick and the healthy—all were invited to follow him. This was his flock. So of course Paul and Barnabas preached to both Jews and Gentiles. No wonder John had a vision of a great multitude “from every nation, race, people, and tongue” (Revelation 7:9). No one is excluded from God's tender touch.

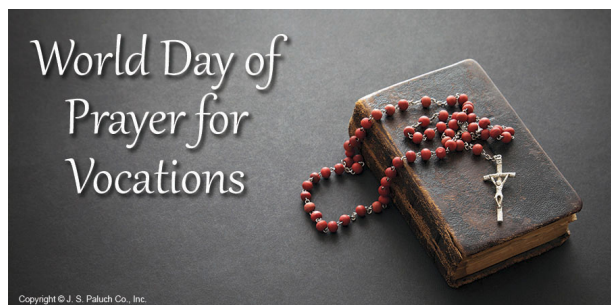

In so many cases, animals have much stronger senses than humans. A hawk can see prey from hundreds of feet in the air. A bear can smell food from miles away. Bats can hear so well that they fly in the dark by echolocation. Anyone with a pet can cite evidence that their pet can recognize their voice. Fido and Fluffy respond to their human's voice, even over the phone or down the street. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that his sheep hear his voice. Jesus recognizes them and the sheep recognize him.

As members of his flock, do we recognize Jesus' voice? Can we hear his voice in the same people to whom he reached out—the neglected and the scorned? The hungry and the imprisoned? The homeless and the refugee? The aged and the unborn? The pregnant teen? The abused child? They may be reaching out to us, looking for someone to hear them, really hear their voice.

Question of the Week:

Do I try to hear Jesus' voice in the voices of those I encounter? Through whom is Jesus speaking to me?

Blood Bank at St. James Sunday, May 19, 2019

When's the last time you saved someone's life? Here's your chance! The mobile unit of the San Diego Blood Bank will be at St. James Sunday, May 19, from 7:30 A.M. to 12:45 P.M. to receive blood donations. Bringing it close to home, we have had several parishioners whose lives have been saved by blood transfusions, and over the years we've been doing it, your donations have saved over 9,000 lives. Remember: people are the only source -- there is no substitute. And only 3% of Americans ever donate blood. If you've never given blood before, now is the time to start. Let's give them a big turnout!

For your convenience, you may make an appointment either by:

- signing up at the table after Mass
- visiting the Blood Bank website at MY-SDBB.org
- calling the Blood Bank 1-800-4MY-SDBB
- calling Bob or Cory Graves at 858-755-8990
- emailing Bob at robtgraves@wwdb.org

Appointments are not required

We prayed, fasted and gave alms—and now we celebrate Easter joy! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl ends as we encounter our Risen Lord. We reflect on our brothers and sisters we have walked with, and we commit to bringing Easter joy to each person we meet in our daily lives. Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl to the church by May 12th.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The reception of Holy Communion at Sunday Mass is such an expected feature of the Mass these days that it is surprising to realize that for many centuries, receiving Communion was a relatively rare event in the life of a faithful Christian. “Easter duty” means that Catholics must celebrate reconciliation if aware of serious sin, and receive Holy Communion during the Easter season. For a while, this was a requirement of Easter week, and later extended to the whole season of fifty days, and even beyond that by a few weeks. For the majority of people long ago, this meant Communion was a once-a-year moment. A rather complex bureaucracy grew up around this rule in the Middle Ages. Amazingly, people received a kind of token at confession admitting them to Communion in their home parish, which then kept careful records and reported them to the bishop.

Surviving records can tell us a great deal about our ancestors. In fact, people were encouraged to journey to the church of their baptism in order to fulfill their duty, and therefore the Easter duty includes in its origins a grateful pilgrimage to the font in which you were first embraced by Christ. If your “Holy Mother Church” is within a drive, why not make a pilgrimage to that font a feature of your Easter celebration of these fifty days?

Prayer for Vocations

GOD OUR FATHER, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

El rincón del P. Gerardo

Jesús siempre ha querido ampliar su audiencia y por tanto estaba resuelto a abrir caminos en medio de los límites falsos que eran comunes a la cultura y a la fe. Los paganos y los judíos, las mujeres y los hombres, los pescadores y los cobradores de impuestos, los enfermos y los sanos, todos fueron invitados a seguirle. Ése era su rebaño. Y así es que Pablo y Bernabé predicaron tanto para los judíos que para los paganos. No es de extrañar entonces que Juan haya tenido la visión de una muchedumbre “de todas las naciones y razas, de todos los pueblos y lenguas” (Apocalipsis 7, 9). Nadie queda excluido de la ternura de Dios.

En muchos casos los sentidos de los animales son más fuerte que los de los humanos. Un halcón puede ver a su presa desde cientos de pies en el aire. Un oso puede oler comida a millas de distancia. Los murciélagos oyen tan bien, que pueden volar en la oscuridad por ecolocación. Cualquiera que tenga una mascota sabe que éstas pueden reconocer su voz. Los perros y los gatos responden a las voces humanas, aun por el teléfono o por la calle. En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús le dice a sus discípulos que las ovejas escuchan su voz. Jesús las reconoce y ellas lo reconocen a él.

Somos miembros del rebaño de Jesús, ¿podemos reconocer su voz? ¿Podemos oír su voz en las mismas personas a las que él quería llegar, o sea, los abandonados y despreciados, los hambrientos y los encarcelados, los que no tienen un techo y los refugiados, los ancianos y los aún no nacidos, la adolescente encinta, el niño abusado? Puede que todos ellos quieran llegar a nosotros, pues necesitan a alguien que los escuche, que verdaderamente escuchen su voz.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
