Fr. Gerard's Corner

If you trace the route that Paul and Barnabas took on the first of Paul's great missionary journeys, you will see something unusual. Once they reached Derbe ("that city" in the first line of today's first reading), they returned exactly the way they came before sailing back across the Mediterranean. With a whole world to convert, why would they pass right back through the same towns they'd already visited? The answer is found elsewhere in the first reading: they "exhorted them to persevere in the faith" (Acts 14:22). It is one thing to make a commitment; it is something else to sustain that commitment. Paul and Barnabas realized that for the newly baptized Christians to become true disciples, they had to persevere in the face of hardship. We are called to persevere as well.

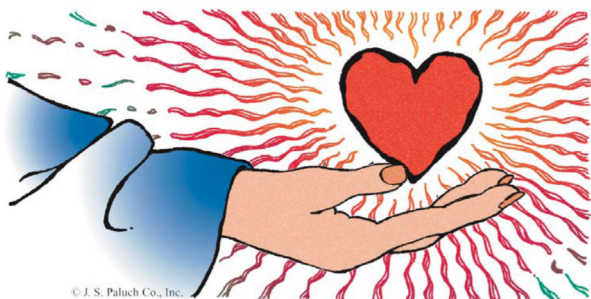

Jesus tells his disciples that they will be recognized by the love that they have for one another. This applies no less to us today. Can we be recognized by the love we have for each other? Or do we fail to act in a "Christian" way to our sisters and brothers?

To love one another on Jesus' terms entails more than acting kindly and empathetically. This is a start, but Jesus demands more. Note the entire sentence: "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" (John 13:34). Jesus loved us so much that he suffered and died to redeem us. We are challenged to act selflessly, to put others ahead of ourselves, even when it comes to our own lives. This is the challenge Jesus gives his followers.

Blood Bank at St. James Sunday, May 19, 2019

When's the last time you saved someone's life? Here's your chance! The mobile unit of the San Diego Blood Bank will be at St. James Sunday, May 19, from 7:30 A.M. to 12:45 P.M. to receive blood donations. Bringing it close to home, we have had several parishioners whose lives have been saved by blood transfusions, and over the years we've been doing it, your donations have saved over 9,000 lives. Remember: people are the only source -- there is no substitute. And only 3% of Americans ever donate blood. If you've never given blood before, now is the time to start. Let's give them a big turnout!

For your convenience, you may make an appointment either by:

- signing up at the table after Mass
- visiting the Blood Bank website at MY-SDBB.org
- calling the Blood Bank 1-800-4MY-SDBB
- calling Bob or Cory Graves at 858-755-8990

CATHOLIC NIGHT HAT

El rincón del P. Gerardo

Si seguimos el rastro de la ruta que Pablo y Bernabé tomaron en el primero de las grandes travesías misioneras de Pablo vemos algo inusual. Una vez que llegaron a Derbe, regresaron por el mismo camino antes de embarcar para el Mediterráneo. Con todo un mundo para poder convertir, ¿por qué tomaron el mismísimo camino de regreso atravesando las mismas ciudades que ya habían visitado? La respuesta la encontramos en otro lugar de la primera lectura: “los exhortaban a perseverar en la fe” (Hechos 14, 22). Una cosa es hacer un compromiso y otra permanecer fieles a ese compromiso. Pablo y Bernabé estaban conscientes de que para que los cristianos recién bautizados se convirtieran en verdaderos discípulos tenían que perseverar frente a las adversidades. Así también nosotros debemos perseverar.

Jesús le dice a sus discípulos que el amor entre ellos es lo que les hará ser reconocidos. Esto no se aplica menos a nosotros hoy. ¿Podemos ser reconocidos por el amor que hay entre nosotros? ¿O fallamos en actuar de una manera “cristiana” hacia nuestros hermanos y hermanas?

Amarnos los unos a los otros según lo prescribe Jesús implica más que actuar amable y sonoramente. Eso es un buen comienzo, pero Jesús nos exige más. Fijémonos en la totalidad de la frase: “que se amen los unos a los otros, como yo los he amado” (Juan 13, 34). Jesús nos amó tanto que sufrió y murió para redimirnos. Se nos hace el desafío de actuar altruistamente; de poner a los demás por delante de nosotros, aun cuando se trate de nuestra propia vida. Éste es el desafío que Jesús le hace a sus discípulos.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
