Fr. Gerard's Corner

Each of the readings today feature food, namely bread, and this is intentional, considering the feast. The Body and Blood of Christ are spiritual food. They nourish us on our mission. However, there is one other common element in the readings, one of equal importance: God's blessing. Melchizedek offered bread and wine, then blessed Abram in the form of a prayer. Saint Paul narrates how Jesus took bread and wine, gave thanks to God, then shared them with his disciples as his body and blood. In the Gospel, before Jesus distributed the loaves and fishes to the multitudes, he looked up to heaven and said a blessing over them. As important as the food was for nourishment and sustenance, it was essential to thank its ultimate source.

It may easily be overlooked, but the disciples were an essential part of the miracle in the Gospel. It was not enough that Jesus multiplied the food so that there would be more than enough for everyone to eat. Someone then had to distribute the bread and fish to the thousands of people in attendance. The disciples are the Church, as are we. To overlook their role, our role, in feeding the hungry with what at first seemed like an inadequate amount of food would be a mistake. We are essential agents in feeding the hungry. The disciples carried out Jesus' ministry by distributing their baskets of food. So can we.

Through Jesus, God provides us with an abundance of food—more than is necessary to sustain us. Whether physical food as in the Gospel or spiritual food such as Christ's Body and Blood, an encounter with Jesus leaves us personally satisfied with an excess to share.

Question of the Week:

How can I share the abundance I have with those in need? How can the Eucharist I receive nourish me spiritually?

EPHESIANS

Discover Your Inheritance

An Eight-Part Bible Study Featuring Jeff Cavins (Presenter) and Thomas Smith

Paul's letter to the Ephesians reveals many remarkable gifts that we as Christians are given in the Church. This letter tells us about the nature of the Church—as a body, as a household, as a mystery, as a communion, as a bride, and as an army. It shows us the great inheritance that awaits us as sons and daughters, adopted fully into the family of God. It reveals how God's great love for us can transform our daily lives—if we allow it. Ephesians will enrich your faith—and show you how to live it out.

Discover what it means to be a son or daughter of God—an heir to all he has to give.

THE EUCHARIST

Just as the bread, which is made from the earth, when God is invoked is no longer common bread but the Eucharist, both earthly and heavenly, so our bodies, after we have received the Eucharist, are no longer corruptible, since they hold the hope of the resurrection.

To love God, proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, and serve all God's people.

El rincón del P. Gerardo

Cada una de las lecturas de hoy tiene que ver con el alimento, específicamente con el pan, y esto es algo intencional debido a la fiesta que celebramos. El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo son alimento espiritual, que nos sustenta en nuestra misión. Sin embargo, hay otro elemento común en las lecturas, el cual es de igual importancia: la bendición de Dios. Melquisedec ofreció pan y vino, y después bendijo a Abram con una oración. San Pablo nos narra cómo Jesús tomó el pan y el vino, dio gracias a Dios y, ya convertidos en su cuerpo y su sangre, los compartió con sus discípulos. En el Evangelio vemos que Jesús miró al cielo y bendijo los panes y los pescados antes de distribuirlos a las multitudes. No obstante lo importante que era el alimento para la nutrición y el sustento, lo esencial era dar gracias a quien en definitiva lo provee.

Los discípulos fueron una parte esencial del milagro descrito en el Evangelio, aunque este hecho pudiera pasarse fácilmente por alto. No fue suficiente que Jesús multiplicara el alimento para que hubiese suficiente para todos comer, sino que alguien tuvo que distribuir el pan y los pescados a los millares de personas que estaban allí presentes. Los discípulos son la Iglesia, tal como lo somos nosotros. Pasar por alto este rol, o sea nuestro rol, en dar de comer a los hambrientos con lo que al principio parecía una cantidad inadecuada de alimento sería un error. Nosotros somos agentes esenciales en dar de comer a los que pasan hambre. Los discípulos llevaron a cabo el ministerio de Jesús al distribuir las cestas de comida. Nosotros podemos hacer lo mismo.

Por medio de Jesús, Dios nos proporciona abundante alimento, más de lo necesario para vivir. Ya sea alimento físico como en el Evangelio o alimento espiritual como lo es el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, un encuentro con Jesús nos deja personalmente satisfechos en exceso, como para poder compartirlo con los demás.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
