Fr. Gerard's Corner

It is the Samaritan, a foreigner, who alone returns to glorify God and thank this man who healed him. It is Naaman, a foreigner, who seeks out Elisha, the man of God, to be healed. How is it that only foreigners recognize the hand of God in their healing and respond appropriately? Could it be that because they are foreigners, they are more open to the unexpected and more appreciative that they were included? Naaman was reluctant to wash in the Jordan, believing the rivers of his native land would be better. The Samaritan must have been reluctant to show himself to the Jewish priests. Do we realize that we ourselves are foreigners, are lepers, sinners saved by a God who reaches across boundaries?

Taking a step back, we realize that this foreigner in the Gospel was mixed in with nine native people. It is ironic that because all lepers were considered unclean, the common barrier between Jews and Gentiles had broken down. If none of them had this skin disease, the Samaritan would have been excluded from the group. But because all were unclean, the nine others did not exclude the "unclean" foreigner.

The last essential step in these healing stories is the expression of thanks. Even if we have never needed to be healed like a leper or welcomed like a foreigner, we have all received many blessings from God. First and foremost, Jesus suffered and died for us, opening the way to eternal life. When we receive the Lord in the Eucharist, we are giving thanks for his presence here today, as the word eucharist literally means thanksgiving.

Question of the Week:

Do I receive the Lord in gratitude, here at Mass and at other times in my life? How can I change my attitude, to see what I have as blessings from God?

NOTHING BUT GOD

I need nothing but God, and to lose myself

El rincón del P. Gerardo

Un extranjero samaritano es el único que regresa a glorificar a Dios y a darle las gracias al hombre que lo curó. Naamán, otro extranjero, busca a Eliseo, el hombre de Dios, para que lo cure. ¿Cómo es que sólo los extranjeros reconocen la mano de Dios al ser curados y responden apropiadamente? ¿Será que precisamente por ser extranjeros están más abiertos a lo inesperado y aprecian más haber sido incluidos? Naamán estaba reacio a lavarse en el Jordán, pues creía que los ríos de su propia tierra serían mejores. Puede que el samaritano estuviera reacio a presentarse ante los sacerdotes judíos. ¿Estamos conscientes de que nosotros mismos somos extranjeros, leprosos y pecadores redimidos por Dios que cruza todos los límites?

Dando un poco de marcha atrás nos damos cuenta de que este extranjero en el Evangelio andaba con nueve personas que eran oriundas del lugar. Resulta irónico que como todos los leprosos eran considerados impuros la barrera común entre los judíos y los paganos quedaba derribada. Si ninguno de ellos hubiese estado afectado por esa enfermedad de la piel el samaritano hubiese sido excluido del grupo, pero como todos eran impuros los otros nueve no excluyeron al extranjero "impuro".

El último paso esencial en estas historias de sanación es la acción de gracias. Aunque nunca hubiésemos tenido la necesidad de ser sanados como un leproso o acogido como un extranjero, todos hemos recibido muchas bendiciones de Dios. Primero que nada, Jesús sufrió y murió por nosotros, y así nos abrió el camino hacia la vida eterna. Cuando recibimos al Señor en la Eucaristía le damos gracias por su presencia aquí entre nosotros, ya que la palabra eucaristía quiere decir textualmente acción de gracias.

Capital Campaign Update

Our 3-year Building for the Future capital campaign, begun in mid-2016, has officially ended! 345 families made pledges totaling $2,176,683. To date, we have received $2,157,793, over 99% of our goal. A small number of parishioners are continuing to make payments against their pledges, which we greatly appreciate. As you know, the majority of these campaign funds have gone to the renovation of the Church and grounds. At present, we have over $630,000 remaining in the bank, accruing interest as we evaluate various options for the next improvements to our parish campus.

Thank you!

Your generosity toward our parish family is heartwarming – know that you have made a difference both now and for the generations to follow. Thank you!

Mission Statement: To love God, proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, and serve all God's people.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
