Fr. Gerard's Corner

We tend to think of prayer as an individual, personal phenomenon. But the first reading suggests that prayer can be communal. Moses did not go alone to the top of the hill to raise his arms in supplication to God. He was accompanied by two friends, Aaron and Hur, who eventually supported his arms when Moses tired. All three together lifted their arms to God. In the Gospel Jesus tells his disciples, "Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night?" (Luke 18:7). In the light of the parable of the dishonest judge, this suggests that if several people persist in asking for the same thing, God will see that justice is done.

"Keep in touch!" we call out when saying goodbye to a friend we only see occasionally. Jesus, knowing that the day would come when he would be separated from his disciples, could not do the same. Throughout his life, Jesus continually prayed to his Father. This was the way that he was able to keep in touch. Moreover, he was providing a model to his disciples. Through constant and persistent prayer, his disciples could continue to keep in touch.

"Be persistent," Paul charges Timothy in proclaiming God's word, "whether it is convenient or inconvenient" (2 Timothy 4:2). It is not always an easy task, even when it is convenient, but when it is inconvenient it becomes quite a challenge. Yet it is our mission, as disciples, to proclaim God's word, especially when it is inconvenient. Today, on World Mission Sunday, let us commit ourselves to persist in proclaiming God's word even when it is difficult.

Question of the Week:

What can I do to carry out God's mission in my life? Will I make time to pray persistently for guidance and support?

PEANUT BUTTER & TOILETRIES

We are so grateful for the generosity of our parishioners and community businesses, who all contribute to the success of the Mission Circle peanut butter and jelly sandwich program.

Every week our volunteers collect bread donations from our local Vons stores in Solana Beach and Del Mar, Jersey Mike's in Solana Beach, and Lazy Acres in Encinitas. Please show your appreciation by supporting these businesses and thanking them for their generosity, which makes such a difference in the lives of homeless families and prisoners in Tijuana.

The Mission Circle program comes together every Thursday at St. Leo's to make over 1,000 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to help feed those in need.

Our greatest need is peanut butter and toiletries. Please put your donations in the social room.

Thank You!

A big thank you to all who participated in the Blood Drive on October 6th! Thirty-nine (39) pints were contributed.

The components of a single pint saves two lives on the average, we saved approximately 78 lives that day. Thank you so much.

The next Blood Drive at St. James will be February 16th.

UPDATE

St. James-St Leo Mental Health Ministry

Prayer and Support Group for Families with a love one who has a mental illness

Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my help and my God.

Psalm 43:5

“Hope” is a word often on our lips. We need to keep hope in our hearts and minds. Faith, hope, and love are theological virtues, gifts given by God to help us in our journey in our lives. God knows that we all struggle with finding and holding onto hope.

The Prayer Support group for families and friends of persons with a brain disorder such as major depression, schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, etc., come together in prayer. Sharing living experiences can be refreshing and inspire new hope and strength. God is always greater than us.

Our next support group is Thursday, October 24th at 7:00pm in the social room.

If you have a loved one with a mental illness please join us!

For more information, please contact Marie at (760) 845-9033, marierevere@sbcglobal.net or Sandy at (858) 729-8522, samurphy11@hotmail.com

All Souls Day Novena

All Souls Day commemorates all those who have died and who, we pray, may one day join the saints around the great banquet table of the Lamb. We pray for the dead. We pray for the forgiveness of their sins, and we pray that God in his great mercy, will take them to himself.

In November, we will have a Novena of Masses (November 2nd—10th) to remember our loved ones.

All Souls Day envelope are available in your packets, if you receive envelopes or, at the Church Entrance.

Return the envelope to the parish office before Monday, October 28th.

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

El rincón del P. Gerardo

Nosotros tendemos a considerar la oración como un fenómeno individual y personal, pero la primera lectura sugiere que la oración puede ser comunitaria. Moisés no fue solo a la cumbre del monte para levantar sus manos a Dios en suplicación. Dos amigos lo acompañaron, Aarón y Jur, que sostuvieron los brazos de Moisés cuando éste se cansaba. Los tres juntos levantaron sus brazos a Dios. En el Evangelio Jesús les pregunta a sus discípulos: “¿creen acaso que Dios no hará justicia a sus elegidos, que claman a él día y noche, y que los hará esperar?” (Lucas 18, 7). A la luz de esta parábola del juez deshonesto la sugerencia es que, si varias personas persisten en pedir lo mismo, Dios hará justicia.

“¡Mantengámonos en contacto!” decimos muchas veces al despedirnos de un amigo que vemos sólo ocasionalmente. Jesús, que sabía que el día vendría en que se separaría de sus discípulos, no pudo decir lo mismo. A lo largo de toda su vida Jesús oraba a su Padre constantemente. Ésa era la manera de seguir en contacto. Es más, también le dejaba así un modelo a sus discípulos. Mediante la oración constante y persistente sus discípulos pueden seguir en contacto.

“Insiste a tiempo y a destiempo” en proclamar la palabra, le dice Pablo a Timoteo (2 Timoteo 4, 2). Esta tarea no es siempre fácil, aun cuando es a tiempo, pero cuando es a destiempo resulta un verdadero desafío. Sin embargo, es nuestra misión de discípulos proclamar la palabra de Dios, sobre todo cuando es a destiempo. Hoy, en el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones, comprometámonos a persistir en proclamar la palabra de Dios aun cuando sea difícil.

Pregunta del Día

¿Qué puedo hacer para llevar a cabo la misión de Dios en mi vida? ¿Dedicaré el tiempo a rezar persistentemente para obtener orientación y auxilio?

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Mientras las manos de Moisés estaban en alto, Israel se imponían en la batalla (Éxodo 17:8-13).

Salmo — El auxilio me viene del Señor (Salmo 121 [120]).

Segunda lectura — Proclamen la palabra; sean persistente cuando sea conveniente o no (2 Timoteo 3:14 — 4:2).

Evangelio — Dios asegura los derechos de los elegidos que claman día y noche (Lucas 18:1-8).

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
