Fr. Gerard's Corner

"How long, O Lord?" Habakkuk cries in the first reading (Habakkuk 1:2). He accuses God: "You do not listen!" (1:2). There are times in all our lives when we feel abandoned by God, when we suffer trauma, violence, ruin, or misery. It is natural to question how a loving, caring, all-powerful God can allow this. Do we turn to faith or despair? In the end, Habakkuk turns to faith. The forces of Nebuchadnezzar are closing in on Jerusalem, but the Lord assures Habakkuk that the just Israelite will live. Keeping faith is a challenge when times are difficult. But this is when it is necessary . . . and consoling.

A gardener plants seeds in the spring, nurtures the tender shoots by watering and weeding and fertilizing, tends them throughout the summer, allowing them to flower, then harvests their fruit in the fall. Within each one of us are seeds that were planted before we were born: seeds of kindness and courage, generosity and patience, faith, hope, and love. But we were born with seeds of vices as well as virtues. Which seeds do we nurture? Which seeds do we care for? Are we nurturing the tender shoots or the invasive weeds? As babies, the seeds we contained were incapable of any action at all. As we mature, the seeds we nurtured are capable of moving mountains.

How do we nurture the seeds within us? Nurturing requires attention and action. We nurture the seeds of virtue by exercising those virtues. We exercise kindness and generosity through acts of care and charity. We exercise courage when we stand up for what we believe in when it's easier not to. We exercise faith by placing our trust in God.

Question of the Week:

Which seeds have I nurtured? Which seeds will I make the effort to nurture now?

ATTENTION ALL BAKERS!! COOKIES FOR KAIROS!! WE NEED COOKIES!!!

For many years, home-baked cookies have been an integral part of the Kairos prison ministry weekends at R.J. Donovan Correctional Facility in Otay Mesa. Last year, St. James provided over 650 dozen cookies for the effort! We will be collecting cookie donations again this year at all masses (except 6:00 pm) October 12-13, for the upcoming Kairos weekend. Please package your frozen homemade cookies (no packaged or bar cookies; please indicate if they contain nuts) in clear, zip-lock freezer bags (so that they may be inspected at the prison).

NEW THIS YEAR -

Package no more than ONE (1) dozen per bag.

PEANUT BUTTER & TOILETRIES

We are so grateful for the generosity of our parishioners and community businesses, who all contribute to the success of the Mission Circle peanut butter and jelly sandwich program.

Every week our volunteers collect bread donations from our local Vons stores in Solana Beach and Del Mar, Jersey Mike's in Solana Beach, and Lazy Acres in Encinitas. Please show your appreciation by supporting these businesses and thanking them for their generosity, which makes such a difference in the lives of homeless families and prisoners in Tijuana.

The Mission Circle program comes together every Thursday at St. Leo's to make over 1,000 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to help feed those in need.

Our greatest need is peanut butter and toiletries. Please put your donations in the social room.

Food Packaging Event

Don't forget to sign up to volunteer to package food at Mission Circle's 8th annual food packaging event! We will now be sending some of our 54,000 meals to survivors of Hurricane Dorian in the Bahamas where there has been extreme devastation, and finding enough food and water is challenging.

You may sign up to participate in the food packaging event on the St. James and Leo website <http://stjamesandleo.org> or Mission Circle website <http://missioncircle.com>

SLOTS ARE FILLING UP, SO PLEASE SIGN UP ASAP
IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO PARTICIPATE!

A LITTLE FAITH

Today our readings are about faith, frustration, and how much is enough. Habakkuk is a complainer having an argument with God. Timothy is encouraging a community challenged by cowardice and the apostles want more faith than they have. Things aren't happening fast enough for any of them or for us. All of them and we want God to do something sooner rather than later and we want God to give us a reason to believe that it will all work out. What does God do? God puts it back on them—and us—telling Habakkuk to describe the world he wants; telling the apostles to do more than the expected. Doing more with less is a familiar phrase today and a reminder that a little faith may be enough even for the most difficult times.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Sometimes human relationships go awry, but Christ's choice for us is irrevocable. In marriage celebrations, the Church always recalls God's faithfulness to help prepare married couples for enduring the inevitable rough spots. The Byzantine liturgy does this by adorning the couple with crowns that remind them of the martyr's crown. The couple therefore takes on a vocation of witnessing to the sacredness of life in all of its suffering and joy, and of keeping their eyes fixed on the banquet of heaven.

In Eastern theology, people have a liturgical vocation to give God praise, and marriage fits within that plan. It is not so much saying prayers that counts, but becoming prayer. Interestingly, in this liturgy the couple never utters a word other than joining in the community's chants; there are no marriage vows as such. There is therefore not a hint of our Western Christian sense that marriage is a legal contract. Rather, it is all about living out one's baptismal vocation, embracing the cross, pouring oneself out in love, and opening to the grace of the Holy Spirit.

El rincón del P. Gerardo

“¿Hasta cuándo, Señor?” clama Habacuc en la primera lectura (Habacuc 1, 2). Y acusa a Dios al reclamarle: “sin que me escuches” (1, 2). En algún momento de nuestra vida todos nos hemos sentido abandonados por Dios: cuando hemos sufrido un trauma, violencia, ruina o miseria. Es natural cuestionar cómo un Dios todo amor, todopoderoso y omnipotente puede permitir algo así. ¿Recurrimos entonces a la fe o a la desesperanza? Al final Habacuc recurre a la fe. Las fuerzas de Nabucodonosor se acercan a Jerusalén, pero el Señor le asegura a Habacuc que los justos de Israel vivirán. Mantener la fe es un reto cuando los tiempos se vuelven difíciles, pero es entonces cuando se hace más necesaria... y consoladora.

El jardinero siembra las semillas en la primavera, cuida de los retoños regándolos, arrancando la maleza y fertilizándolos; los atiende durante el verano, los deja florecer y recoge los frutos en el otoño. En cada uno de nosotros hay semillas que fueron sembradas antes de que nació, semillas de bondad y de valor, de generosidad y paciencia, de fe, esperanza y amor. Pero nacimos tanto con semillas de vicios como de virtudes. ¿Cuáles son las semillas que cultivamos? ¿Cuáles son las semillas que cuidamos? ¿Estamos cuidando los retoños tiernos o la maleza hostil? Cuando éramos bebés, las semillas que teníamos eran incapaces de tomar ninguna acción. A medida que maduramos las semillas que hemos cuidado son capaces de mover montañas.

¿De qué manera cultivamos las semillas que han sido sembradas en nosotros? Cultivar requiere atención y acción. Cultivamos las semillas de la virtud practicando esas virtudes. Practicamos la bondad y la generosidad mediante acciones que ofrecen cuidado y amor. Practicamos el valor cuando salimos en defensa de lo que creemos aunque sea difícil hacerlo. Practicamos la fe cuando ponemos nuestra confianza en Dios.

Pregunta del Día

¿Cuáles son las semillas que he cultivado? ¿Qué semillas trataré de cultivar ahora?

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — A pesar de violencia, destrucción y ruina, el justo vivirá a causa de su fe (Habacuc 1:2-3; 2:2-4).

Salmo — Señor, que no seamos sordos a tu voz (Salmo 95 [94]).

Segunda lectura — Tolera dificultades con la fuerza que viene de Dios (2 Timoteo 1:6-8, 13-14).

Evangelio — ¡Señor, auméntanos la fe! (Lucas 17:5-10).

features golden brown buttermilk pancakes and includes juice, fresh fruit, scrambled eggs, country potatoes, and sausage. The full breakfast runs $7 Children 12 and under are half-price. Join us for a GREAT FAMILY Breakfast !

Blood Bank at St. James TODAY! Sunday, October 6th

The mobile unit of the San Diego Blood Bank is here today, Sunday, October 6, from 7:30 A.M. to 12:45 P.M. to receive blood donations. People are the only source -- there is no substitute. And only 3% of Americans ever donate blood. If you've never given blood before, now is the time to start. Let's give them a big turnout! Right after Mass, walk up to the parking lot between the Hall and the School.

Mission Statement: To love God, proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, and serve all God's people.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
