Fr. Gerard's Corner

The concept of king may be anachronistic for us, and indeed in most of the world, but today's solemnity asks us to look at king in a different way. We are asked to allow Jesus Christ to reign in our lives, to rule our consciences, to guide us in our actions. There exists the entire universe, true, but there also exists our own personal universe that encompasses our own life. As Jesus rules over all creation, we are also asked to allow him to rule over our lives.

The Chosen People had divided themselves into twelve tribes, each enjoying local authority but vulnerable to outside invaders and threats. They wanted a king to unite and defend them. They found one in David—chosen by God, anointed by Samuel, victor over the Philistines—and he united the northern and southern tribes. Under David, the empire of Israel stretched across the region. He was the king of their universe. Jesus is the king of all the universe, for in him all things in heaven and earth were created and through him all things are reconciled. Jesus unites all creation.

Repentance is a process. The sinner must acknowledge the sin and his/her sinfulness, then show remorse and ask for forgiveness. Once forgiven, the person can be reconciled with the one whom she/he hurt and with God. The first criminal wants a shortcut to salvation. He wants the Savior to save him the easy way. He does not realize that this is not the way salvation works.

Fr. Gerard
J.S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Question of the Week:

From whom do I need to seek forgiveness and whom do I need to forgive? Can I look at this as part of the road to salvation?

El rincón del P. Gerardo

El concepto de rey puede que nos sea anacrónico, no sólo a nosotros sino a la mayor parte del mundo, pero la solemnidad de hoy pide que miremos a un rey de una manera diferente. Se nos pide que le permitamos a Jesucristo reinar en nuestra vida, gobernar nuestra conciencia y guiar nuestras acciones. Es cierto que hay todo un universo, pero también existe nuestro propio universo personal que abarca toda nuestra vida. Jesús gobierna toda la creación y a nosotros se nos pide permitirle gobernar nuestra vida.

El pueblo escogido se dividió a sí mismo en 12 tribus. Cada una de ellas tenía su propia autoridad local, pero también eran vulnerables a las invasiones y amenazas del exterior. Ellos querían un rey que los uniera y defendiera y lo encontraron en David, el cual fue escogido por Dios, ungido por Samuel y salió victorioso en contra de los filisteos. David, además, unió las tribus del norte y del sur. Bajo el reinado de David el imperio de Israel se extendió sobre toda la región. Él fue el rey del universo de ellos. Jesús es el rey de todo el universo, pues en él todas las cosas en el cielo y en la tierra fueron creadas y por él todas las cosas son reconciliadas. Jesús unifica a toda la creación.

El arrepentimiento es un proceso. El pecador debe reconocer su pecado y su condición pecadora, debe demostrar remordimiento y después pedir perdón. Una vez perdonada la persona puede reconciliarse con la otra persona que la hirió y con Dios. El primer malhechor quiere obtener la salvación por un atajo; quiere que el Salvador lo salve por un camino fácil. No se da cuenta que la salvación no se alcanza así.

Pregunta del Día

¿A quiénes necesito pedir perdón y a quiénes necesito perdonar? ¿Puedo ver esto como parte del camino de la salvación?

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is “To Serve Christ and His Church.” For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
