Fr. Gerard's Corner

The author of Sirach wanted people living in an increasingly Hellenistic culture to retain the ancient values and traditions of Judaism. It is our great fortune that he recorded the wisdom that had been passed through many generations, for now many new generations have been enlightened by that same wisdom.

For those families that are undergoing hardships, the Holy Family is a wonderful example to follow. From the beginning, they had more than their share of difficulties. Both Mary and Joseph were initially unsettled by the news of her pregnancy. In the days before Jesus' birth, they had to take an arduous journey to Bethlehem. They were refused proper accommodations and Mary had to give birth in a stable. Instead of returning home, they had to take flight at night to a foreign land to keep the baby safe. When they were finally able to return, they had to proceed carefully for fear of the new king. Yet at every step, God watched over them. May we know the same consolation throughout our trials.

When we look at people who spend much of their day taking care of babies, young children, elderly parents, or disabled family members, we realize the power of love. Love enables us to dedicate our time and energy to the care of those who need it. Love fosters compassion, kindness, patience, and mercy, as Paul taught. If that love is weakened and dies, the bonds break and all those virtues wither. The world suffers when the one who feels unloved or who refuses love can no longer recognize or accept compassion, kindness, mercy, or forgiveness.

Question of the Week:

Is there someone I know who is vulnerable because they have no family to rely on? What can I do for them?

The Office will be closed for Christmas from Wednesday, December 25th until Wednesday, January 1st. The staff will return January 2, 2020.

Merry Christmas!
Happy New year!

Eucharistic Adoration

“What practically can we do during this season of vigil keeping? What are some practices that might incarnate for us the Advent spirituality? I strongly recommend the classically Catholic discipline of Eucharistic adoration. To spend a half hour or an hour in the presence of the Lord is not to accomplish or achieve very much—it is not really “getting” anywhere—but it is a particularly rich form of spiritual waiting.” -Bishop Robert Barron

We need additional adorers to sign up for Thursday 10-11 am.

Please sign up to spend an hour on Thursdays with Jesus. Call Monica (858) 945-7220 or email mzeboldbell@cox.net

Returning Catholics
7-Week Series will begin
Wed, Jan 22, 2020

We meet on Wednesday evenings at 7 p.m. in the St. James church social room. For information, contact Carol (858-354-7085, cabecker@san.rr.com) or Steve (858-945-7171, robertadiamond10@yahoo.com) or just come to the first meeting. A description of the series is given below.

The 7-week Returning Catholics series is designed to assist those who wish to consider returning to the Church. The program includes an updating in the beliefs and practices of the Catholic Church, and provides a spiritual community for those returning. The program ends with an opportunity to experience the Sacrament of Reconciliation with the Pastor in the context of a relaxed scripture-based reconciliation service. The reconciliation Morning of Prayer will take place on Saturday, March 28, 2020 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the church. Lunch is included. All parishioners are welcome to attend the Morning of Prayer!

El rincón del P. Gerardo

El autor de Sirácide quería que la gente que vivía en una cultura cada vez más helenística retuviera los valores y las tradiciones de antaño del judaísmo. Nos es de gran fortuna que él haya puesto por escrito esa sabiduría, que ha sido transmitida de generación en generación, pues ahora esa sabiduría ha servido para iluminar a muchas generaciones nuevas.

La Sagrada Familia es un ejemplo colosal a seguir, para aquellas familias que atraviesan adversidades. Desde el comienzo ellos tuvieron sus manos llenas de dificultades. Tanto María como José se sintieron perturbados al principio con el embarazo de ella. Unos pocos días antes del nacimiento de Jesús tuvieron que emprender un viaje arduo hacia Belén. No se les dio posada y María tuvo que dar a luz en un establo. En vez de regresar a casa tuvieron que huir durante la noche a tierra extranjera para salvar al niño. Cuando por fin pudieron regresar tuvieron que andarse con mucho cuidado por temor al nuevo rey. Sin embargo, Dios cuidó de ellos en cada momento. Que nosotros tengamos la misma consolación al atravesar nuestras pruebas.

Cuando vemos a personas que pasan la mayor parte del día cuidando de bebés, de niños pequeños, de una madre o de un padre enfermo, o de algún familiar discapacitado, nos damos cuenta del poder del amor. El amor nos permite dedicar nuestro tiempo y energía al cuidado de aquellos que lo necesitan. El amor fomenta compasión, bondad, paciencia y misericordia, tal como lo enseñó san Pablo. Si ese amor se debilita y muere se rompen los vínculos y se marchitan todas esas virtudes. El mundo sufre cuando la persona que no se siente amada o que rechaza el amor no puede ya reconocer o aceptar la compasión, la bondad, la misericordia ni el perdón.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
