How can my light overcome these examples of darkness?

Fr. Gerard's Corner

Isaiah could really be a thorn in the side of his audience. In the verses preceding today's first reading, he addresses the practice of fasting and scoffs at those who afflict themselves while ignoring the truly afflicted. "This, rather, is the fasting that I wish," he says before launching in to the exhortation we hear today (Isaiah 58:6). In just over two weeks we will be expected to fast during the season of Lent. Let us resolve to eat less because we have given food to the hungry. Let us resolve to spend less on ourselves because we have given assistance to those who lack shelter or clothing. Let us resolve to spend less time indulging our own desires because we have given our time to comforting and satisfying those in need.

In the responsorial psalm we sang that the just person is a light to the upright. The just person models grace, mercy, and charity for others to see. We can certainly think of people like this, who provide examples of how to live uprightly. In all things, let us hope the good deeds we see done truly glorify the source of love and grace.

Before creating any living thing, God created light to shine forth over all. But in our world, much is hidden in the shadows, intentionally or unintentionally. In baptism, we were given a candle, lit from the Easter candle with the light of Christ. We are called to shine that light into the shadows of our world, exposing sin, injustice, poverty, and evil.

Centering Prayer

Tuesdays 9AM

St. James Parish

Centering Prayer is a method designed to facilitate the development of contemplative prayer by preparing our faculties to receive this gift. It presents ancient Christian wisdom teachings in an updated form. Centering Prayer is not meant to replace other kinds of prayer; rather it casts a new light and depth of meaning on them. It is at the same time a relationship with God and a discipline to foster that relationship. This method of prayer is a movement beyond conversation with Christ to communion with him.

Be still and know that I am God.—Psalm 46:10

January 26 was designated by Pope Francis as Word of God Sunday. We will celebrate God's gift of the Holy Scriptures in our lives of faith. Please bring your home Bible to Church Sunday, February 16 to be blessed during Mass.

When's the last time you saved someone's life?
Here's your chance!

The mobile unit of the San Diego Blood Bank will be at St. James Sunday, February 16, from 7:30 A.M. to 12:45 P.M. to receive blood donations. Bringing it close to home, we have had several parishioners whose lives have been saved by blood transfusions, and over the years we've been doing it, your donations have saved over 9,000 lives. Remember: people are the only source -- there is no substitute. And only 3% of Americans ever donate blood. If you've never given blood before, now is the time to start. Let's give them a big turnout! For your convenience, you may make an appointment either by:

- signing up at the table after Mass, or
 - visiting the Blood Bank website at MY-SDBB.org, or
 - calling the Blood Bank 1-800-4MY-SDBB (1-800-469-7322), or
 - calling Bob or Cory Graves at 858-755-8990, or emailing Bob at robtgraves@wwwdb.org
- Appointment not required, but advisable.

The Great Stained Glass Windows of France: SUBLIME LIGHT AND COLORS

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 20th

presented by Francine Jensen

6:30 pm wine, fruit & cheese in the social room

7:00–8:10 pm presentation in the church

St. James Catholic Church Social Room
625 S. Nardo Avenue • Solana Beach, CA

This slide-show with narration is designed to give insight into the soul of France. It recounts the history of the stained-glass windows in the various regions of France, describes the technical evolution and various trends of this very special art over the course of centuries, gives close-ups on the iconography, and evokes war destruction and restorations. An update on the restoration of Notre-Dame of Paris will be given.

Lecturer: Francine Jensen was born and educated in France. Although her professional life has been spent as a scientist in Paris, Philadelphia and San Diego, performing crucial research in cell biology and virology, her leisure-time passion has been the study of French art history.

This fundraiser is designated for the benefit of the translation of John Eudes, A Major Contributor to the Christian Renewal in France by Father Paul Milcent. There will be a suggested $20 free-will offering.

El Rincón del P. Gerardo

Isaías bien pudiera ser una molestia para su audiencia. En los versículos que preceden a la primera lectura de hoy él aborda la práctica del ayuno y ridiculiza a aquellos que sufren de su propia mano mientras que ignoran a los que verdaderamente sufren. Antes de lanzarse a dar la exhortación que escuchamos hoy Isaías dice: “El ayuno que [el Señor quiere] de ti es éste...” (Isaías 58, 6). En un poco más de dos semanas empezaremos nuestro ayuno de Cuaresma. Tomemos la resolución de comer menos, porque hemos dado parte de nuestro alimento a los hambrientos. Tomemos la resolución de gastar menos en nosotros mismos, porque hemos atendido las necesidades de los que carecen de vivienda o de ropa. Tomemos la resolución de pasar menos tiempo satisfaciendo nuestros propios gustos, porque pasamos más tiempo en consolar y satisfacer las necesidades de otras personas.

En el salmo responsorial hemos cantado que la personas justas son una luz en las tinieblas. La persona justa es un modelo de gracia, misericordia y caridad visible a los demás. Ciertamente conocemos esa clase de personas, que dan ejemplo de cómo vivir honradamente. Esperemos que en todas las buenas obras que se lleven a cabo se dé gloria a la fuente del amor y de la gracia.

Antes de crear a ningún ser viviente Dios creó la luz para que resplandeciera sobre todas las cosas. Pero en nuestro mundo hay muchas cosas escondidas bajo las sombras, ya sea deliberada o inadvertidamente. En nuestro bautismo nos dieron una vela encendida con el cirio pascual, que representa la luz de Cristo. Estamos llamados a hacer brillar esa luz en las sombras de nuestro mundo, poniendo de manifiesto el pecado, la injusticia, la pobreza y el mal.

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>
