Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The woman of Shunem was clearly a woman of influence, even in her own marriage. The author clearly states that it is she, not her husband, who invites the prophet to dine with them in their home. She goes on to suggest to her husband, not ask him, that they build a room for Elisha and furnish it with furniture. She is determined to offer him hospitality beyond his or her husband's expectations. For her generosity, God rewards her with a child. She had prepared a room for God's prophet. Elisha promises her that God will prepare her womb for a new life.

When most of us were baptized a stream of water was poured over our heads, but to truly appreciate the first line of the second reading, we should picture baptism by immersion. After all, this was the norm in Paul's time. When the elect are plunged into the baptismal waters, they are temporarily unable to breathe. They are dying with Christ. When their faces are lifted out of the water, they are being raised to new, changed life. As baptized Christians, we are called to bury our lives of sin and live in a new life of holiness.

When using an absurdly high bar, we often make comparisons that sound ridiculous: "I love this ice cream more than life itself." Jesus' opening words to his apostles in the Gospel sound equally outrageous: "Whoever loves father or mother . . . son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me" (Matthew 10:37). How could we love anyone more than the people who brought us into the world or those whom we brought into the world? But this is not the point. Loving Christ above all gives us a different perspective, in which everyone is someone's daughter or son. This allows us to see all people as our brothers and sisters.

Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church."

The Pope's Monthly Intentions

The Way of the Heart

We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

My Jesus, I believe that Thou art present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things and I desire Thee in my soul. Since I cannot now receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though thou wert already there, I embrace Thee and unite myself wholly to Thee; permit not that I should ever be separated from Thee.

This week we welcome Mrs. Jannet Diaz as our new Director of Hispanic Ministry with residence at Saint Leo Mission. The parish administration acknowledges Jannet's formation and experience at St. James - St. Leo. She comes to us with a solid formation in religious studies as she has a bachelor's in Religious Studies, a diploma of Missiology and masters in Mexican Culture, Theology and Pastoral Theology. Before her appointment, Jannet has been directing sacramental preparation programs, managing St. Leo's catechetical office, recruiting and training volunteers for catechetical ministry, budgeting parish resources, assisting the pastor and parish administrator on a special project. In terms of personal research and expertise, Jannet was a member of the Santo Tomás de Aquino group who was in charge of doing family catechesis book. I cannot enumerate the list of other qualifications that make your pastor happy to welcome Jannet as a gifted member of our leadership.

We also welcome her family: Antonio, her husband, and her children, Isaac and Areli.

You can count on our support and prayers in this new endeavor for you and your family. As soon as the rules are more welcoming for us to gather, we will organize una fiesta!

DONATIONS NEEDED

For Improvements in Parish Apartment

On a visit to the apartment attached to St. Leo Mission, it was clear to those present that some improvements are greatly needed. Our new Director of Hispanic Ministry, Jannet Diaz, will be moving in soon with her family. With budgets tight, I have decided to make a plea to our generous parishioners to help with the purchase of new kitchen appliances and a new carpet.

This apartment is a valuable asset to our parish. The ability to have a staff member on site is of high value. The current appliances are unreliable and not energy efficient. The carpet has been cleaned, but it is well worn and stained. If you would like to help with this effort, please make a donation toward the purchase of these items.

Estimated costs:

Refrigerator	$1,500
Oven	$800
Microwave	$ 400
Carpet	$1,000

Donations can be made by sending a check to the St. James-St. Leo Catholic Community. Please write "apartment improvements" in the memo line.

Thank you for considering these needed improvements as we welcome Jannet and her family.

Esta semana le damos la bienvenida a la Sra. Jannet Díaz como nuestra nueva Directora del Ministerio Hispano con residencia en la Misión de San León Magno. La administración parroquial reconoce la formación y experiencia de Jannet en St. James - St. Leo. Ella viene a nosotros con una sólida formación en estudios religiosos, ya que tiene una licenciatura en Estudios Religiosos, un diploma de Misionología y maestrías en Cultura Mexicana, Teología y Teología Pastoral. Antes de su nombramiento, Jannet ha estado dirigiendo programas de preparación sacramental, administrando la oficina catequética de San León, reclutando y capacitando voluntarios para el ministerio catequético, presupuestando los recursos de la parroquia, ayudando al párroco y al administrador de la parroquia en un proyecto especial. En términos de investigación personal y experiencia, Jannet fue miembro del grupo Santo Tomás de Aquino que estuvo a cargo de hacer un libro de catequesis familiar. No puedo enumerar la lista de otras calificaciones que hacen feliz a su párroco de darle la bienvenida a Jannet como miembro talentoso de nuestro liderazgo.

También damos la bienvenida a su familia: Antonio, su esposo, y sus hijos, Isaac y Areli.

Puedes contar con nuestro apoyo y oraciones en este nuevo esfuerzo para ti y tu familia. ¡Tan pronto como las reglas sean más acogedoras para que nos reunamos, organizaremos una fiesta!

Decimotercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La mujer de Sunem era evidentemente una mujer con influencia, aun en su propio matrimonio. El autor dice claramente que es ella, y no su esposo, quien invita al profeta a comer en el hogar de ellos. Además no le pregunta, sino le sugiere a su esposo construir una habitación amueblada para Eliseo. Ella está resuelta a ofrecerle una hospitalidad más allá de lo esperado por su propio esposo y por el mismo Eliseo. Dios recompensa su generosidad con un hijo. Le había preparado una habitación al profeta de Dios. Eliseo le promete que Dios preparará el seno de ella para recibir una vida nueva.

Cuando fuimos bautizados, a la mayoría de nosotros nos echaron un chorro de agua sobre nuestra cabeza, pero para apreciar de veras la primera frase de la segunda lectura debemos imaginarnos el bautismo por inmersión. Después de todo, esto era lo corriente en los tiempos de Pablo. Cuando el elegido se sumergía en las aguas del bautismo no podía respirar por unos momentos. Estaba muriendo con Cristo. Cuando lo alzan a la superficie recibe una vida nueva y transformada. Nosotros los cristianos estamos llamados a sepultar nuestra vida de pecado y vivir una vida nueva de santidad.

Algunas veces hacemos comparaciones ridículas: “Este helado (nieve) es mejor que la vida”. Las primeras palabras de Jesús a sus apóstoles en el pasaje del Evangelio de hoy también suenan inauditas: “El que ama a su padre o a su madre más que a mí, no es digno de mí” (Mateo 10, 37). ¿Cómo podemos amar a alguien más que a aquellos que nos dieron la vida o a quienes nosotros le hemos dado la vida? Pero éste no es el punto. Amar a Cristo por encima de todos nos da una perspectiva diferente, para ver a otra persona como la hija o el hijo de alguien, lo cual nos permite ver a todos los demás como nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

Padre Gerardo, CJM

SOLEMNIDAD DE SAN PEDRO Y SAN PABLO

FIESTA DE LA UNIDAD
Y LA CATORICIDAD DE LA IGLESIA

29 de Junio

Cada 29 de junio, en la solemnidad de San Pedro y San Pablo, apóstoles, recordamos a estos grandes testigos de Jesucristo y, a la vez, hacemos una solemne confesión de fe en la Iglesia una, santa, católica y apostólica. Ante todo es una fiesta de la catolicidad.

Pedro, el amigo frágil y apasionado de Jesús, es el hombre elegido por Cristo para ser “la roca” de la Iglesia: “Tú eres Pedro y sobre esta piedra edificaré mi Iglesia” ( Mt 16,16). Aceptó con humildad su misión hasta el final, hasta su muerte como mártir. Su tumba en la Basílica de San Pedro en el Vaticano es meta de millones de peregrinos que llegan de todo el mundo.

Pablo, el perseguidor de Cristianos que se convirtió en Apóstol de los gentiles, es un modelo de ardoroso evangelizador para todos los católicos porque después de encontrarse con Jesús en su camino, se entregó sin reservas a la causa del Evangelio.
