Our Mission: To love God, proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, and serve all God's people.

Fr. Gerard's Corner

It ought to be a comfort to us to know exactly what is on the final exam. We can undoubtedly recall times when we spent hours studying a whole semester's work, not knowing what would be on the test. But thanks to today's Gospel, we know how we can inherit eternal life. Those who are welcomed into the kingdom fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, clothed the naked, cared for the ill, and visited the imprisoned. Will we take advantage of knowing the questions in advance?

Few of us are virtuous enough to care for the least among us all the time, in every circumstance. Hopefully none of us totally ignore the needy. We likely fall somewhere in between, helping when we feel we can, but ignoring the needy at other times and in some circumstances. Often we choose to spend that money on ourselves or spend that extra time on something we enjoy. We can pray for the grace to make us more generous, at the same time hoping God's mercy is even more generous.

Jesus spent his entire public ministry helping those in need: healing the sick, driving out demons, feeding thousands, washing his disciples' feet, finally giving his life for our sins. But Jesus also asked the woman at the well to draw water for him, reclined at table and allowed Martha to serve him, and accepted the anointing with expensive perfumed oil by the woman in Bethany. Christ is in us all, giver and recipient, and it is in acts of mercy between two people that he can be seen.

Question of the Week

Who have I ignored or overlooked that I can reach out to now in mercy?
At Thanksgiving, who can I thank for reaching out to me in my need this year?

St. James—St. Leo Catholic Community is under the pastoral care of the Eudist Fathers, or Congregation of Jesus and Mary. We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Our motto is "To Serve Christ and His Church." For more information visit: <http://www.eudistsusa.org>

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Help our elders. In good times and bad, senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have dedicated themselves to service and acts of mercy. Today, they pray for an aching world. Yet years of serving for little or no pay have left their religious communities without enough retirement savings. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medications, nursing care, and other necessities.

Please be generous.

SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING

The Solemnity of Christ the King was instituted by Pope Pius XI with the encyclical Quas primas. The Holy Father speaks directly to the problem of what he referred to as “anti-clericalism,” by which he meant the attitude of those who were seeking to extirpate Christian influence from political life. We see a version of anti-clericalism today, for example, when it is suggested that belief in Catholic teachings renders a person unfit for a judicial appointment.

When our nation is beset by civic unrest, racial tension, and a pandemic, we do well to turn to Our Lord, who reigns over every people and nation.

Jesus is the Word of God made flesh, the Incarnate Lord.

“His kingship is founded upon the ineffable hypostatic union. From this it follows not only that Christ is to be adored by angels and men, but that to him as man angels and men are subject, and must recognize his empire; by reason of the hypostatic union Christ has power over all creatures.” –Quas primas, 13

Jesus is fully God and fully man. He is both the divine Lord and the man who suffered and died on the Cross. In him, one person of the Trinity unites himself to human nature and reigns over all creation as the Incarnate Son of God.

Jesus shares a law of charity to show the way to communion with God.

“Not only do the gospels tell us that he made laws, but they present him to us in the act of making them. Those who keep them show their love for their Divine Master, and he promises that they shall remain in his love.”

–Quas primas, 14

By being close to sisters and brothers who are suffering, we draw close to Jesus. We Catholics, as individuals and as parishes, can look for opportunities to minister to the needs of people who are hurting and, by doing so, we will be acknowledging the kingship of Christ.

The Church acknowledges the reign of Christ, not only privately, but publicly.

“Thus by sermons preached at meetings and in churches, by public adoration of the Blessed Sacrament exposed and by solemn processions, men unite in paying homage to Christ, whom God has given them for their King.”

–Quas primas, 26

Today, religious freedom for many people means that we can believe whatever we want, but when we enter the public square or the marketplace, we must conform to secularist orthodoxy. For Christians, when our faith is repeatedly marginalized in public life, we can fall into the habit of compartmentalizing our lives. We love Jesus in our private lives, but we shrink from acknowledging the kingship of Christ in social life. When we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King, we declare to the world and remind ourselves that Jesus is the Lord, not only of the Church, but of the universe.

Stock Donations Reminder

Stock Donations Reminder: a gift of your securities, including stocks or mutual funds, is an easy way to make a gift. By making a gift of your appreciated securities, especially during these challenging times that we are all experiencing, you can avoid paying capital gains tax that would otherwise be due if you sold these assets. Contributions are deductible for tax purposes. There are no transaction fees or other costs and the full value of the sold securities benefits the parish, school or other Catholic charity you select. Stock Donations instructions and forms sdcatholic.org/giving/....

More importantly, the question you may want to consider is this: Have I been blessed with many gifts and am I inspired by Gospel teaching and my Catholic values that charitable giving is a profound and joy-inspiring expression of love and gratitude? How can I live out my Catholic values and put them into action for the greater good of the community? Your stock contribution will help you live out your Catholic values and benefit your parish or school at the same time. For more information on making a gift please visit our diocesan website at www.sdcatholic.org and click on Giving – Stock Donations at the top of the website. Or, you may contact the Office for Stewardship, Manny Aguilar, at 858-490-8294 or call Daniel Pritchard at Merrill Lynch, the Diocese’s broker, at 760-930-3122.

AMAR A DIOS, PROCLAMAR LA BUENA NUEVA DE JESUCRISTO, SERVIR AL PUEBLO DE DIOS

El rincón del Padre Gerardo

Sería muy bueno saber lo que hay en el examen final. Indudablemente recordamos las veces que pasamos horas estudiando todo un semestre de trabajo, sin saber lo que habría en el examen. Pero gracias al Evangelio de hoy sabemos cómo podemos heredar la vida eterna. Aquellos que son recibidos en el Reino alimentaron a los hambrientos, acogieron a los forasteros, vistieron a los desnudos, cuidaron de los enfermos y visitaron a los encarcelados. ¿Nos aprovecharemos de saber las preguntas por adelantado?

Pocos de nosotros somos lo suficientemente virtuosos para ocuparnos de los más pequeños entre nosotros todo el tiempo y en toda circunstancia. Esperemos que ninguno de nosotros ignoremos del todo a los necesitados. Es probable que estemos en el medio de uno y otro extremo; ayudando cuando nos es conveniente, pero ignorando a los necesitados en otros momentos y en algunas circunstancias. A menudo optamos por gastar ese dinero en nosotros mismos o en pasar ese tiempo extra en algo que disfrutamos. Oremos para obtener la gracia de ser más generosos y a la vez tener la esperanza de que la misericordia de Dios sea aún más generosa.

Jesús pasó toda su vida pública ayudando a los necesitados: curando a los enfermos, expulsando a los demonios, alimentando a millares de personas, lavando los pies de sus discípulos y, por último, entregando su vida por nuestros pecados. Pero Jesús también le pidió a la mujer junto al pozo que le diera de beber, se sentó a la mesa y dejó que Marta lo sirviera, y aceptó que la mujer de Betania lo ungiera con un perfume caro. Cristo vive en cada uno de nosotros, como dador y como destinatario, y es en las obras de misericordia entre dos personas cuando podemos ver su presencia.

SOLEMNIDAD DE CRISTO REY

La Solemnidad de Cristo Rey fue instituida por el Papa Pío XI con la encíclica Quas primas. El Santo Padre habla directamente del problema de lo que llamó “laicismo”, por el cual se refería a la actitud de quienes buscaban extirpar la influencia cristiana de la vida política. Vemos un tipo de laicismo hoy, por ejemplo, cuando se sugiere que creer en la doctrina católica hace que una persona no sea apta para un nombramiento judicial.

Cuando nuestra nación está atacada por disturbios sociales, tensión racial y una pandemia, hacemos bien en recurrir a Nuestro Señor, que reina sobre todos los pueblos y naciones.

Jesús es el Verbo de Dios hecho carne, el Señor Encarnado.

“La soberanía o principado de Cristo se funda en la maravillosa unión llamada hipostática. De donde se sigue que Cristo no sólo debe ser adorado en cuanto Dios por los ángeles y por los hombres, sino que, además, los unos y los otros están sujetos a su imperio y le deben obedecer también en cuanto hombre; de manera que por el solo hecho de la unión hipostática, Cristo tiene potestad sobre todas las criaturas.” –Quas primas, 11

Jesús es plenamente Dios y plenamente hombre. Es al mismo tiempo el Señor divino y el hombre que padeció y murió en la Cruz. En él, una persona de la Santísima Trinidad se une a la naturaleza humana a través de la Encarnación y reina sobre toda la creación como el Hijo Encarnado de Dios.

Jesús comparte una ley de caridad para mostrar el camino hacia la comunión con Dios.

“Los santos Evangelios no sólo narran que Cristo legisló, sino que nos lo presentan legislando. En diferentes circunstancias y con diversas expresiones dice el Divino Maestro que quienes guarden sus preceptos demostrarán que le aman y permanecerán en su caridad.” –Quas primas, 13

Al estar cerca de los hermanos y hermanas que sufren, nos acercamos a Jesús. Nosotros, los católicos, en forma individual o con la parroquia, podemos buscar oportunidades para atender las necesidades de personas que sufren y, al hacerlo, reconoceremos el reinado de Cristo.

La Iglesia reconoce el reino de Cristo en el ámbito privado y también en el público.

“Por medio de discursos en las asambleas y en los templos, de la adoración, en común, del augusto Sacramento públicamente expuesto y de solemnísimas procesiones, proclamar a Cristo como Rey que nos ha sido dado por el cielo.” – Quas primas, 27

Hoy, la libertad religiosa para muchas personas significa que podemos creer cualquier cosa que queramos, pero cuando entramos en la plaza o el mercado público, tenemos que adoptar la ortodoxia secular. Para los cristianos, cuando nuestra fe es marginada repetidamente en la vida pública, podemos caer en el hábito de compartimentar nuestras vidas. Amamos a Jesús en privado, pero nos abstenemos de reconocer la soberanía de Cristo en la vida social. Cuando celebramos la Solemnidad de Cristo el Rey, declaramos al mundo y nos recordamos a nosotros mismos que Jesús es el Señor, no sólo de la Iglesia, sino del universo.
