Our Mission: To love God, proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, and serve all God's people.

Fr. Gerard's Corner

Isaiah's poetic language gives us the framework to prepare for Jesus coming into our lives, whether as an infant at Christmas, in glory at the end of time, or subtly into our hearts when we least expect. What wastelands take up entirely too much of our time and attention? What valleys of neglect need to be filled in? What aspects of ourselves have we built up like mountains that need to be made low? What rugged obstacles have we put in the way so that we don't have to think about how our faith should be guiding us? What parts of ourselves are rough and unfinished? Leveling these bumps and hindrances will prepare us for Jesus' arrival.

Last week we heard Jesus say, "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come" (Mark 13:33). Today we are counseled, "with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day" (2 Peter 3:8). In other words, Jesus' return could come at any time and our perception of time is far different from his. "Any day" could be tomorrow or it could be another thousand years. Or a million years. We are cautioned against applying human perspective to divine plans.

God is on our side, the author of the Second Letter of Peter insists. If it feels like the end of the world is delayed, it is because God wishes that no one perish, that everyone come to repentance. Let this not inspire complacency, but instead comfort and hope as we try to live righteous and holy lives.

We owe our name to Saint John Eudes who founded the Congregation in France in 1643. Evangelization, mainly with the poor and the youth, is our primary purpose, as well as formation to ministry in the training of diocesan priests and lay ministers. Retirement Fund for Religious

Please give to those who have given a lifetime.

Help our elders. In good times and bad, senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have dedicated themselves to service and acts of mercy. Today, they pray for an aching world. Yet years of serving for little or no pay have left their religious communities without enough retirement savings. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps provide medications, nursing care, and other necessities. Please be generous.

Donate online at: retiredreligious.org or make check payable to your parish.
(Write RFR on the memo line.)

Stock Donations Reminder

A gift of your securities, including stocks or mutual funds, is an easy way to make a gift. By making a gift of your appreciated securities, especially during these challenging times that we are all experiencing, you can avoid paying capital gains tax that would otherwise be due if you sold these assets. Contributions are deductible for tax purposes. There are no transaction fees or other costs and the full value of the sold securities benefits the parish, school or other Catholic charity you select. Stock Donations instructions and forms sdcatholic.org/giving/...

More importantly, the question you may want to consider is this: Have I been blessed with many gifts and am I inspired by Gospel teaching and my Catholic values that charitable giving is a profound and joy-inspiring expression of love and gratitude? How can I live out my Catholic values and put them into action for the greater good of the community? Your stock contribution will help you live out your Catholic values and benefit your parish or school at the same time. For more information on making a gift please visit our diocesan website at www.sdcatholic.org and click on Giving – Stock Donations at the top of the website. Or, you may contact the Office for Stewardship, Manny Aguilar, at 858-490-8294 or call Daniel Pritchard at Merrill Lynch, the Diocese's broker, at 760-930-3122.

Bringing God's Light and Hope Christmas Gift Drive December 1 - 20

Sharing the joy of Christmas by providing gifts for needful families is one of our favorite traditions at Mission Circle. This year, our Christmas gift drive will benefit local children whose families have been hit especially hard during the pandemic and to families receiving support from Interfaith Community Services.

What gifts should I buy?

Take a tag from the Christmas Tree when attending Mass at St. James or in the parish office during the week. A link to the entire list will be found on our parish website.

Where do I return the gifts?

Return your unwrapped gifts to weekend Masses (place gifts in the box near the tree) or take them to the parish office during business hours, Monday-Friday 9am-4pm. Remember, if you take a tag from the tree, please attach it to your gift. There will also be a curbside drop-off on Saturday, December 19 from 2pm to 4pm by the Academy gates across from the hall.

There will also be a curbside drop off on Saturday December 19 from 2pm to 4pm by the Academy gates across from the parish hall.

When are gifts due?

Sunday, December 20. They will be delivered to Interfaith on Monday morning, December 21.

Questions?

Contact program coordinators Julie Bishop at jlcbish@gmail.com or Debbie Derderian at debbie@stjames-stleo.com

As always, we depend on your generosity and willingness to bring God's light and hope to families in need. We pray that your faith journey during this Advent season bring you peace that prepares you for the joy of the coming of the Christ child... Emmanuel... Christ with us!

General Absolution: A message from our Pastor

Be Prepared!

In this time of pandemic, our bishop has granted the possibility of general absolution during Mass at Advent, since there will be no communal penance services. Our preparation for Christmas can and should be also a spiritual preparation. I invite our believers to get prepared for General Absolution by meditating on the wonderful text of the formulas (see below), and completing an examination of conscience prior to general absolution. Please see the many helps for Examination of Conscience from USCCB.

Examinations of Conscience

Before celebrating the Sacrament of Penance, one should prepare oneself with an examination of conscience, which involves reflecting prayerfully on one's thoughts, words, and deeds in order to identify any sins.

There are various types of examinations of conscience but regardless of which one you use to prepare yourself for the Sacrament it should be rooted in Scripture; particularly, the Ten Commandments and Beatitudes. Below are a few examples of Examinations of Conscience that can help you prepare for the Sacrament.

Examination of Conscience based on the Ten Commandments
Examination of Conscience in Light of Catholic Social Teaching
Examination of Conscience for Children
Examination of Conscience for Young Adults
Examination of Conscience for Single People
Examination of Conscience for Married Persons

AMAR A DIOS, PROCLAMAR LA BUENA NUEVA DE JESUCRISTO, SERVIR AL PUEBLO DE DIOS

El rincón del Padre Gerardo

El lenguaje poético de Isaías nos ofrece el marco para prepararnos para la venida de Jesús a nuestra vida, ya sea como un bebé en la Navidad, en su gloria al final de los tiempos o sutilmente a nuestro corazón cuando menos lo esperamos. ¿Qué páramos ocupan mucho de nuestro tiempo y de nuestra atención? ¿Qué valles están abandonados y necesitan elevarse? ¿Qué aspectos de nuestra vida hemos elevado como montañas, que necesitan rebajarse? ¿Qué obstáculos escabrosos hemos puesto en el camino, que no permiten que nuestra fe nos guíe? ¿Qué partes de nuestro ser se encuentran ásperos e incompletos? Allanar estos baches y eliminar esos estorbos nos preparará para la llegada de Jesús.

La semana pasada escuchamos a Jesús decir: “Velen y estén preparados, porque no saben cuándo llegará el momento” (Marcos 13, 33). Hoy se nos recuerda que “para el Señor, un día es como mil años y mil años, como un día” (2 Pedro 3, 8). Es decir, la segunda venida de Jesús puede ser en cualquier momento y nuestra percepción del tiempo es muy diferente a la de él. “El momento” puede ser mañana o mil años más tarde. O dentro de un millón de años. Se nos advierte no aplicar nuestra perspectiva humana a los planes divinos.

Que Dios está de nuestra parte es en lo que insiste el autor de la segunda carta del apóstol san Pedro. Si nos parece que el fin del mundo se tarda, es debido a que Dios no quiere que nadie perezca, sino que todos se arrepientan. Que esto no nos lleve a un conformismo, sino que nos reconforte y nos dé esperanza mientras tratamos de vivir justa y santamente.

Fondo para la Jubilación de Religiosos Done a los que donaron su vida.

Ayuden a nuestros mayores. En los buenos y en los malos tiempos, hermanas, hermanos y sacerdotes católicos mayores de órdenes religiosas se han dedicado a servir y hacer obras de misericordia. Hoy ellos rezan por un mundo que sufre. Sin embargo, años sirviendo por poca o ninguna paga han dejado a sus comunidades religiosas con gran escasez en los fondos de jubilación. Su donativo al Fondo para la Jubilación de Religiosos ayuda con las recetas médicas, cuidados de enfermería y otras necesidades. Sean generosos.
